DEDICATION

TO MR. LEONARD NOVAK
Of Root Photographers

We dedicate this 1963 edition of the DOLPHIN because, true artist that he is, he has known how to capture the heart and soul of the WORLD OF THE WEBER STUDENT and immortalize it in pictorial review for four generations of students.

THE WORLD OF

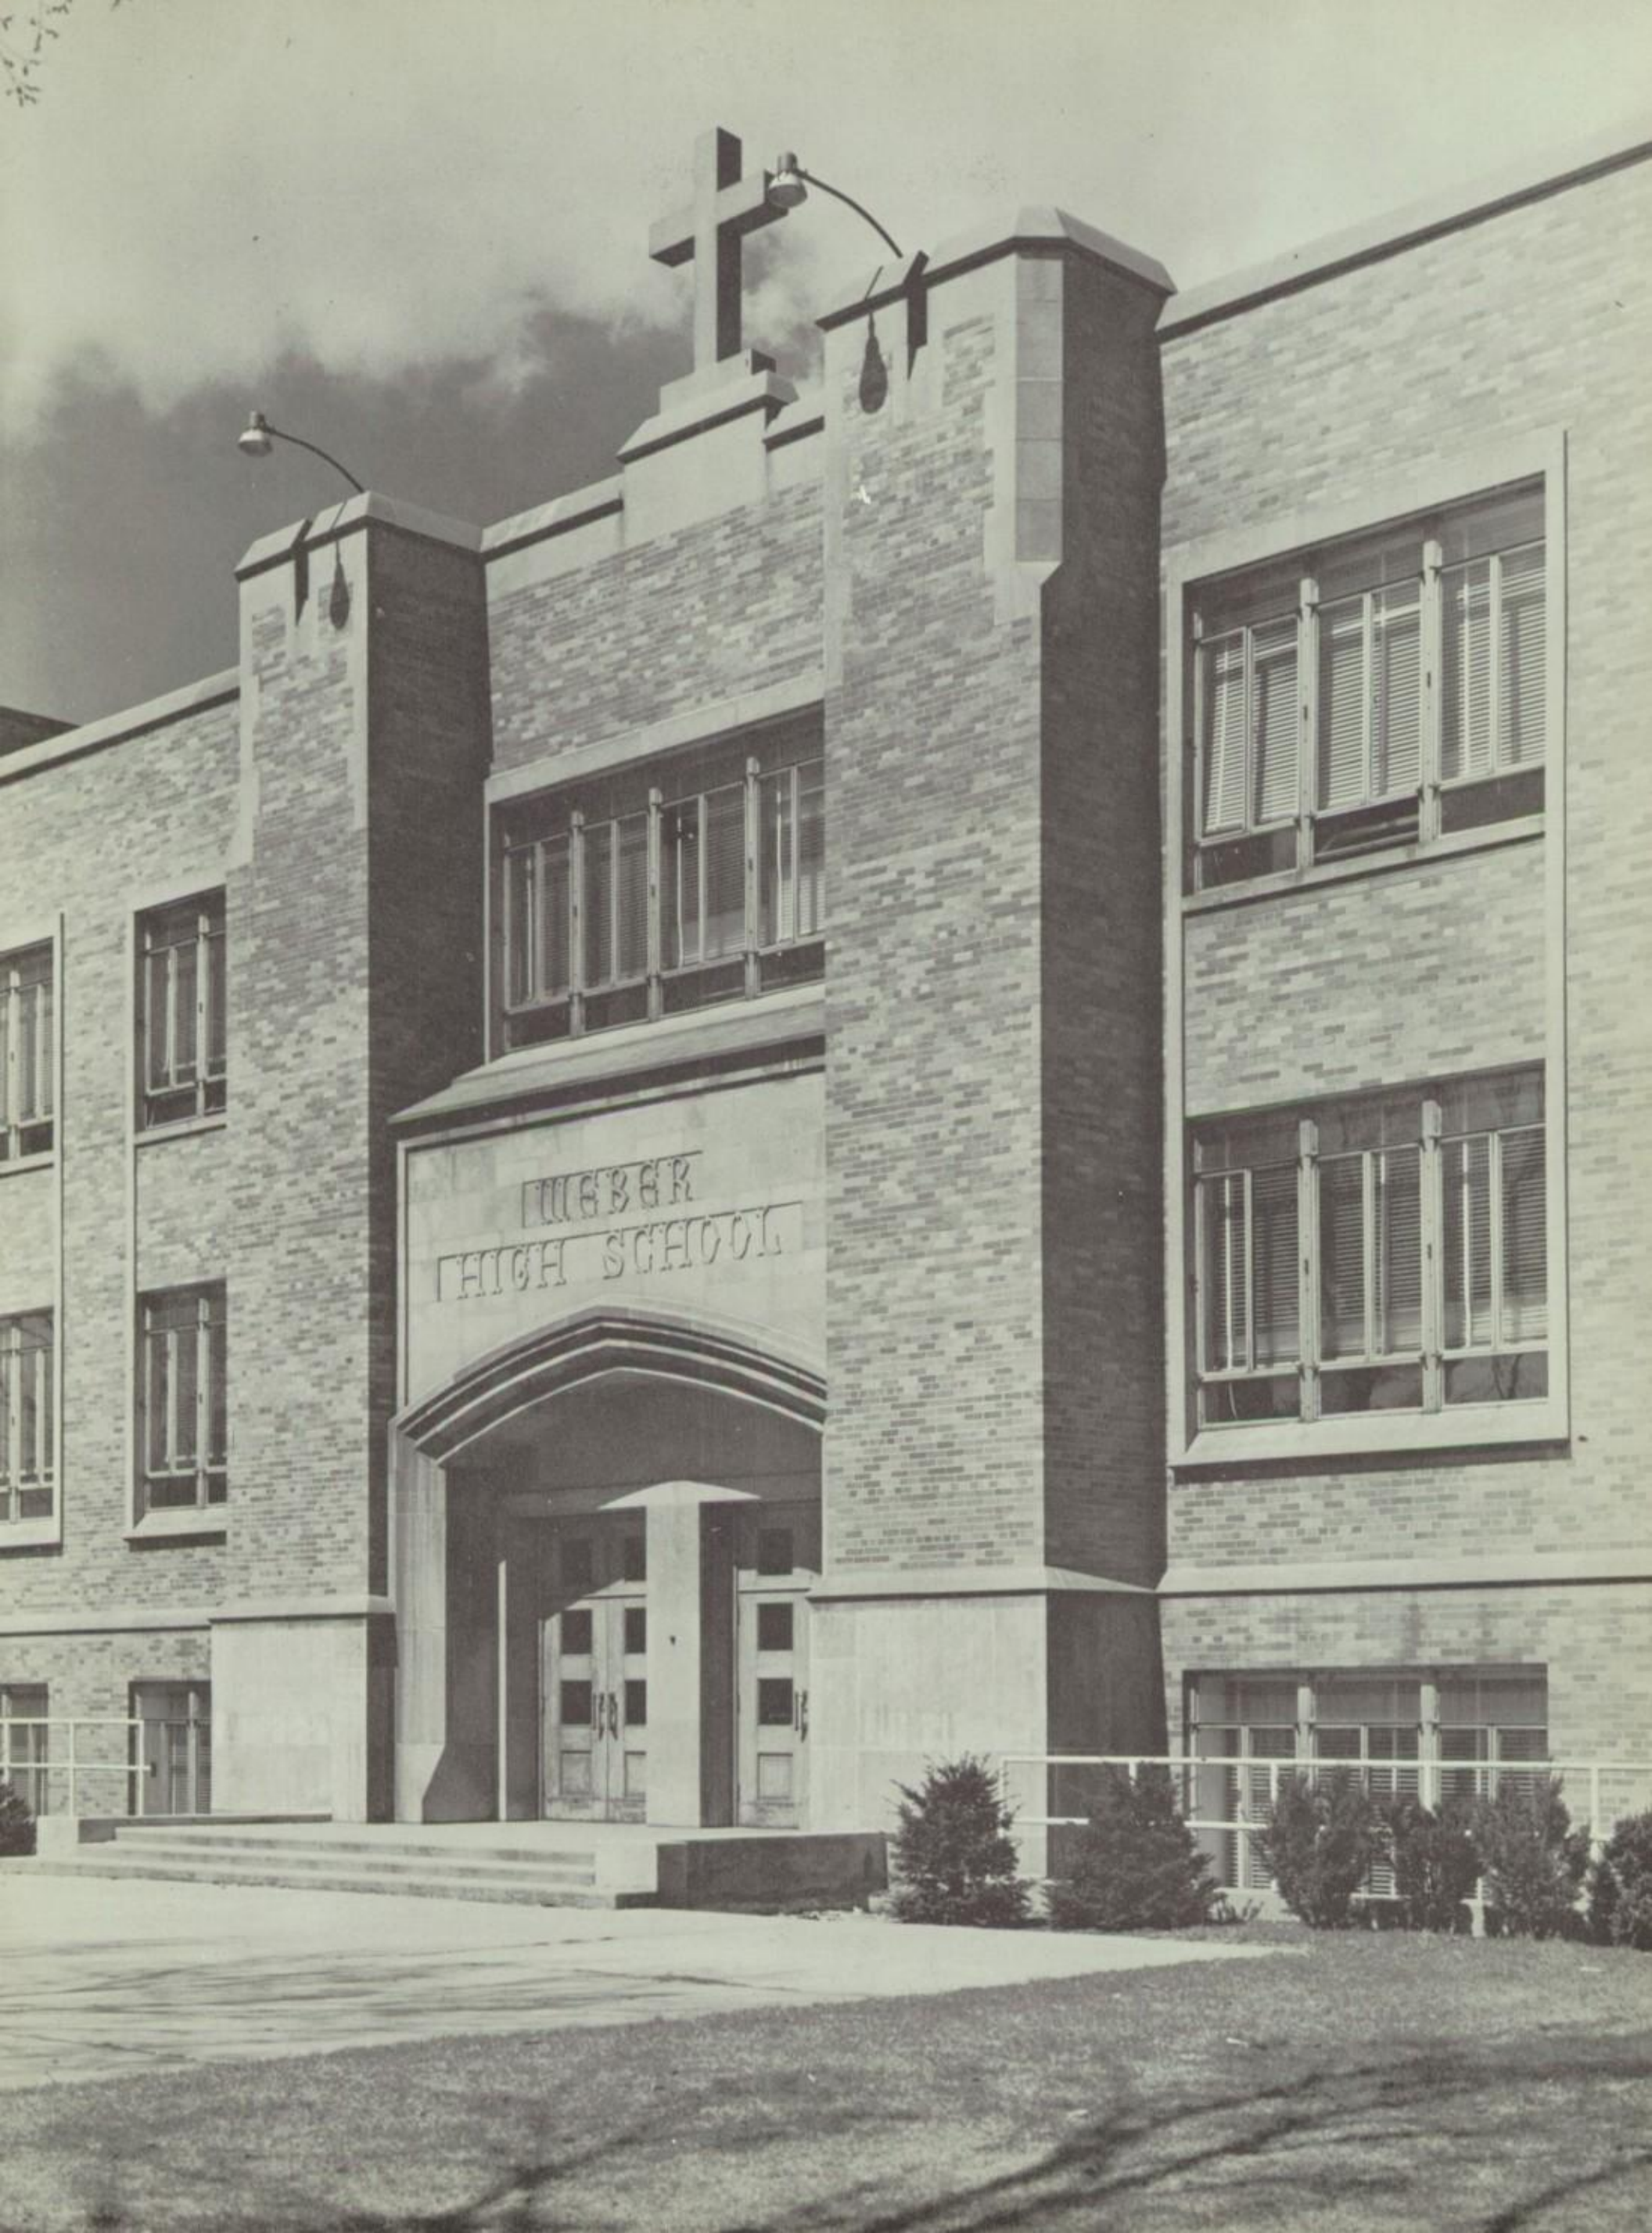

The world of the Weber student is an exciting world that he will never forget. It is in the Palmer-Latrobe-Belden-Lockwood quadrangle. It is in the classrooms, laboratories, and the library where high scholarship and nobility of character are the aims of the Resurrectionist Fathers for him and where he becomes acquainted with the great men and women of human history. It is in the life-long friends he will make with his teachers and his classmates. It is in the cafeteria and the gym and on the stage and on the dance floor. It is in the football stadia, the baseball diamonds, the basketball courts, and the swimming pools at the school's disposal. It is the wonderful and sometimes painful world of the teen-ager struggling to come to terms with himself and the world around him. Above all it is in the chapel where he learns that education in its deepest sense is empty and meaningless if it does not have God as its center.

This world of the Weber student, really a triune one of Academics, Extra-Curricular Activities, and Athletics, is described in the pages to follow.

THE ADMINISTRATION

THE CORE AND SOUL OF THE WORLD OF THE WEBER STUDENT

Father George is the prime mover in the world of the Weber student and is known among all the students as a "cool guy." He understands their problems and is always ready to help them if he can.

As a leader, Father George has displayed himself as the finest in his field by the numerous improvements in the physical plant, student body, and academic standards.

The Principal
Rev. George Jendrach, C.R.

Father Chester shares the task of systematic management of administrative affairs with the Principal. A Specialist in Education he is kept busy as Counselor, Prefect of the Junior Class, and Moderator of the Senior Social Committee.

The Assistant Principal
Rev. Chester Mitoraj, C.R.

Rev. Edwin Zygmunt, C.R.

Weber students are hard workers. They must be to keep up with the demands their teachers make of them. For Weber has high standards and it insists that each student maintain them.

The present Academic, Scientific, Engineering, and General curricula have been designed in accordance with the strict requirements of Resurrectionist education and have the full approval of the State of Illinois, North Central Association, and the National Catholic Association. A boy who meets Weber's standards and requisites for graduation is sufficiently qualified to enter any university or college.

To meet the changing needs of its students and help them discover their particular interests, aptitudes and capabilities, Weber has forged a Guidance Program of an Educational, Vocational, Personal, and Spiritual nature that challenges them to investigate themselves at every level and to make such adjustments and improvements as are required to insure their mental, spiritual, cultural, and social growth.

These various aims of Catholic education are further supplemented and perfected through formal prayer, First Friday, Lenten, and Marian devotions, frequent reception of the sacraments, and annual retreats. For the Weberite is never allowed to forget that his religion is the basis of his every class and his every activity and that he is obliged to make his contribution to life as a Catholic.

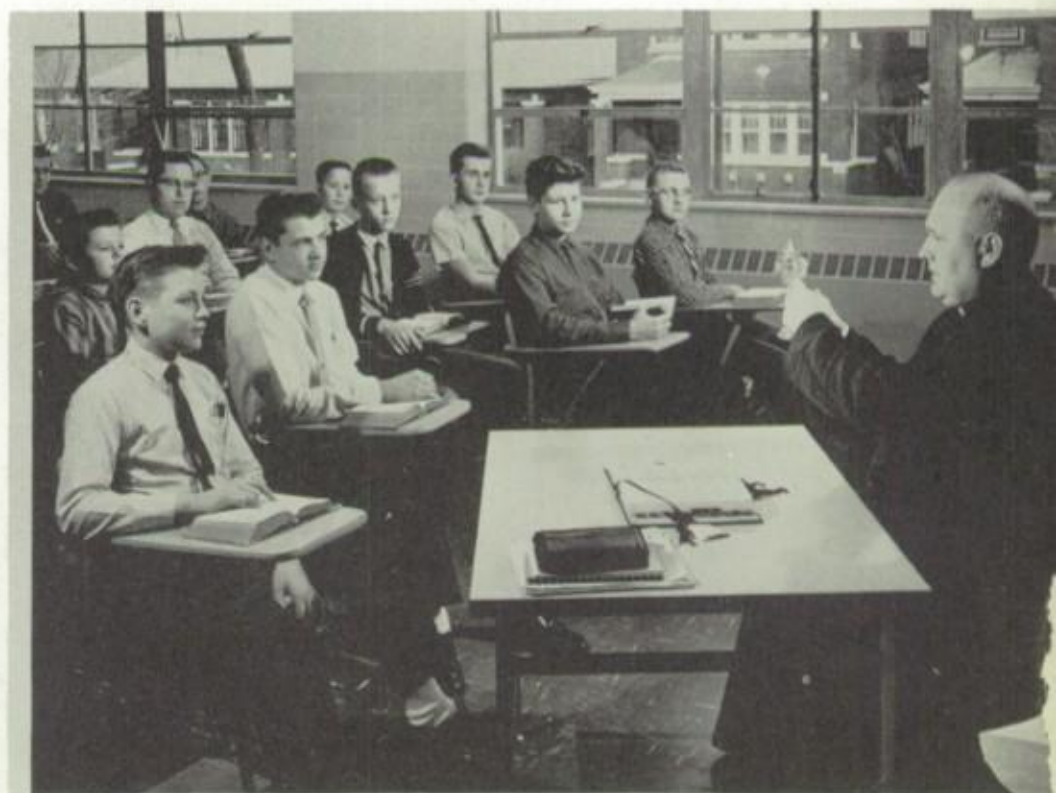

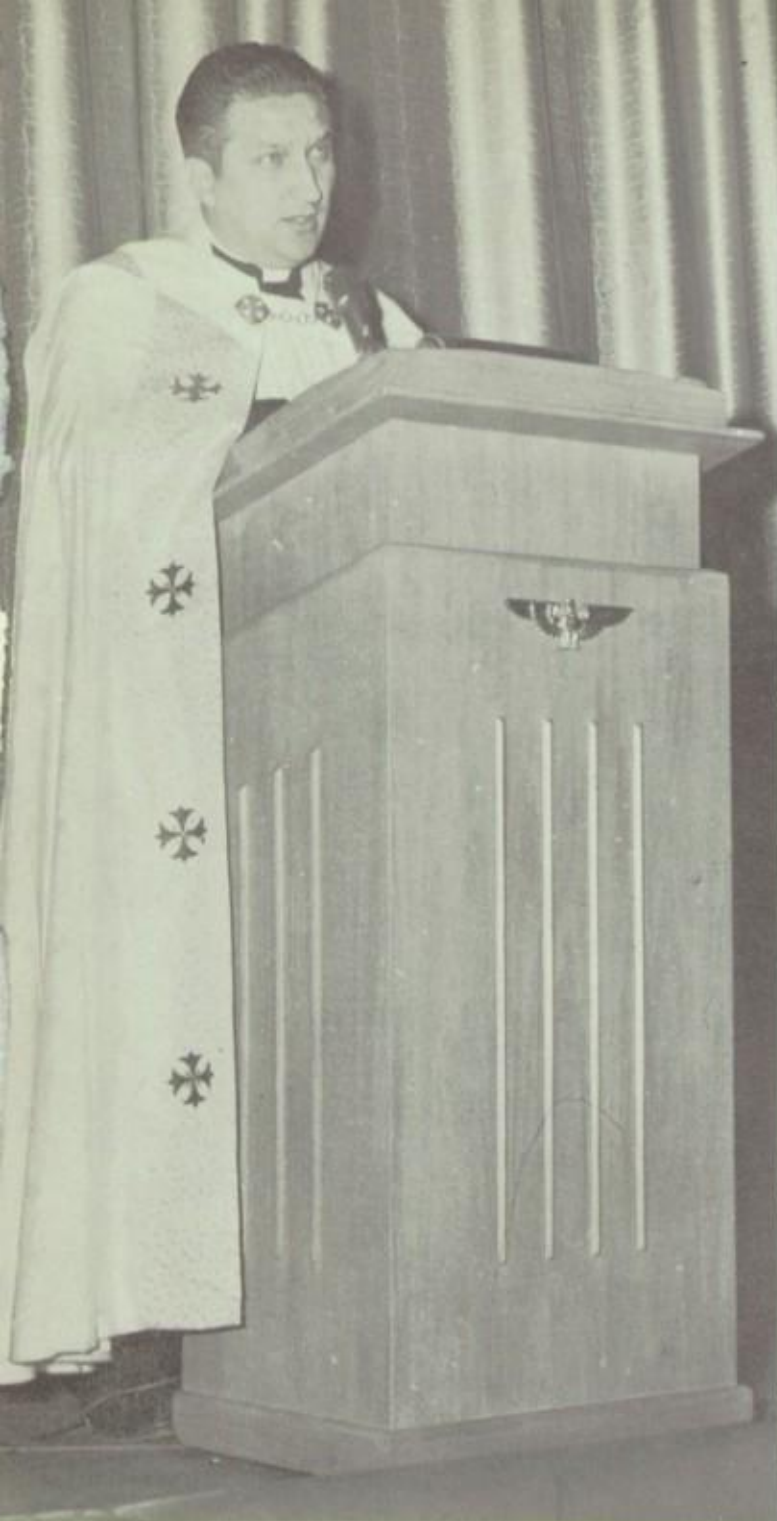

Father Paul Balcer celebrates the Friday Mass in the Gymnasium. Father Henry Gomulka is Deacon, M. Haracz thurifer, and D. Mirabile and D. Closs acolytes.

R. Michalak and R. Gnaski leave the Seat of Wisdom Chapel after a brief visit to the Blessed Sacrament.

Father Alexander Kocon explains just what relics are and the part they play in the Liturgy of the Church to his Freshman 115 Class.

The Reverend Principal gives a spiritual conference to the assembled student body every Friday.

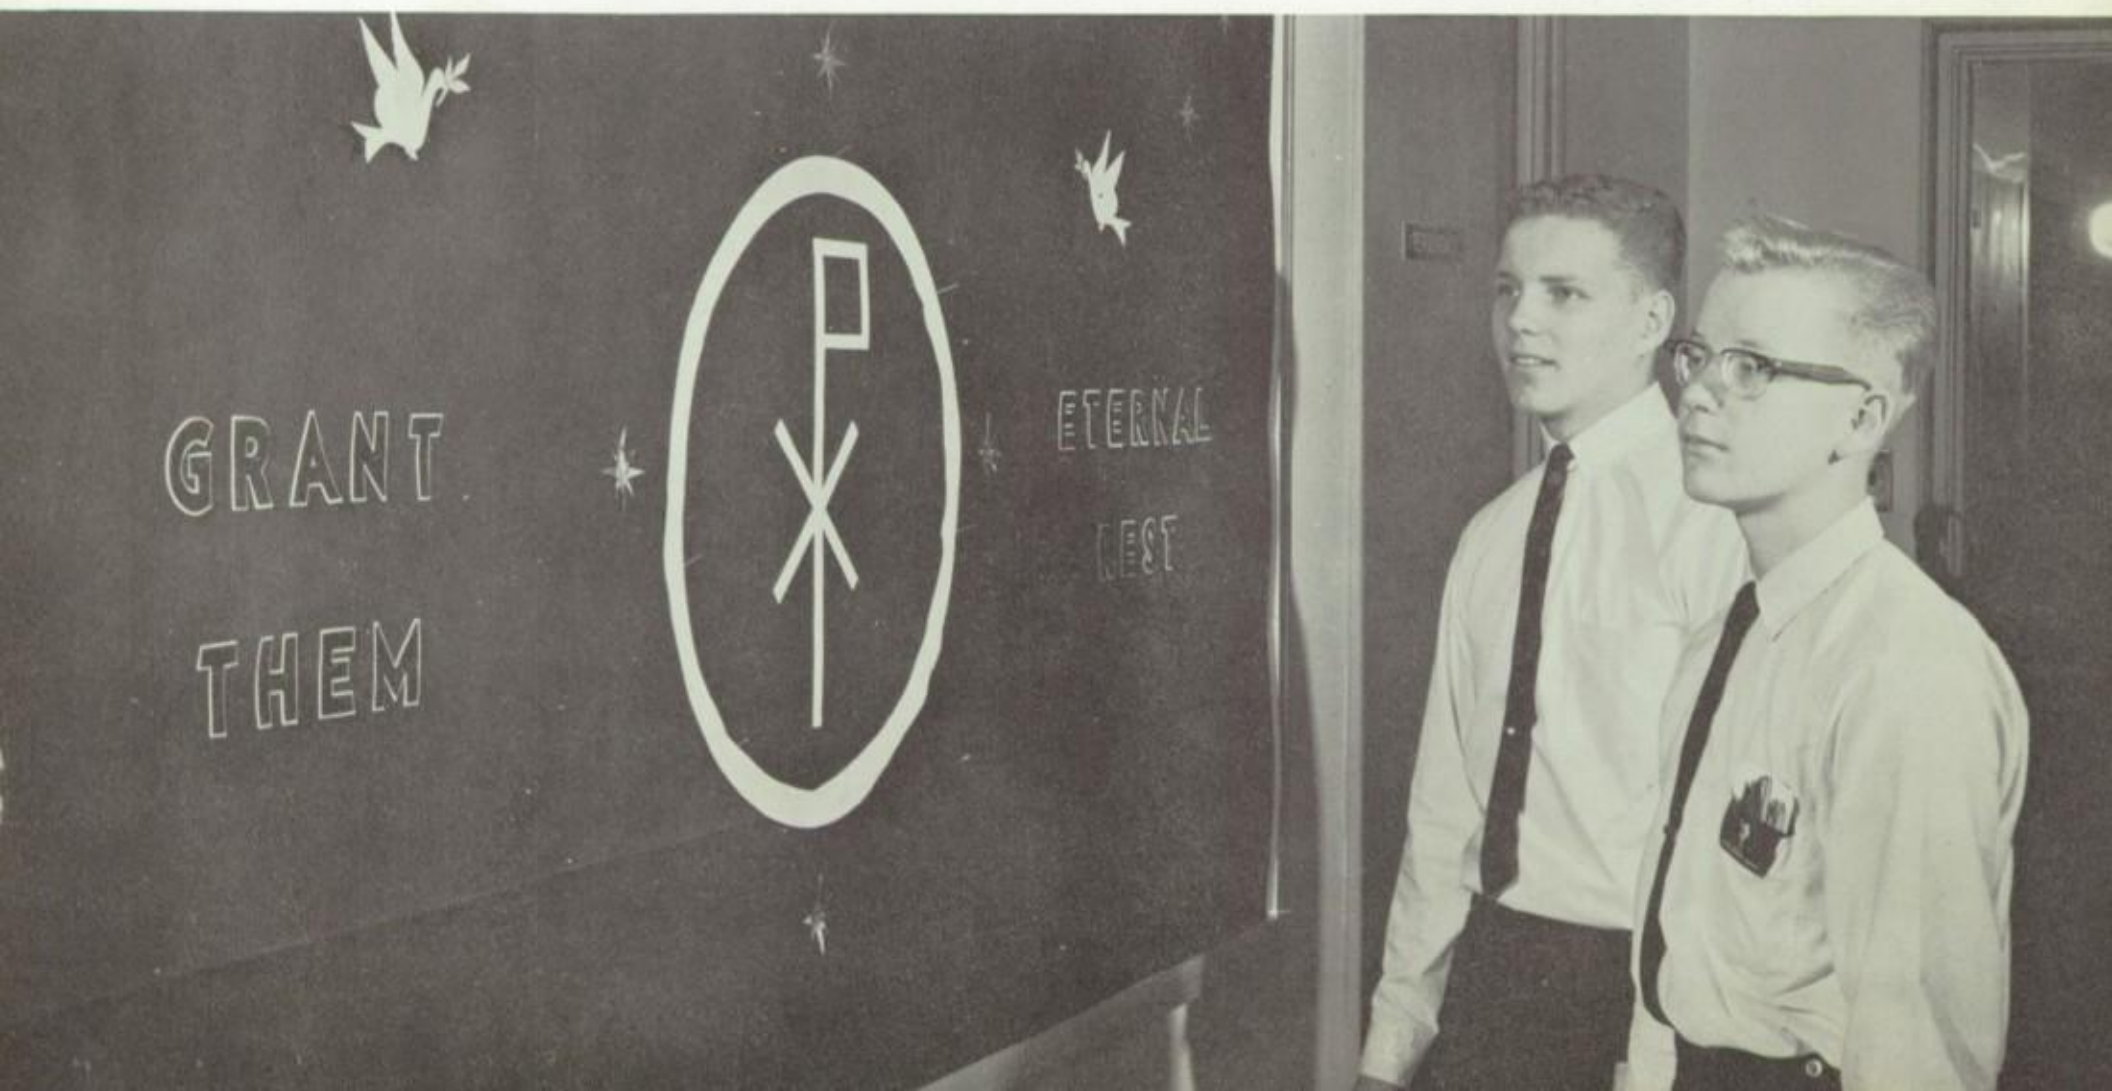

RELIGION

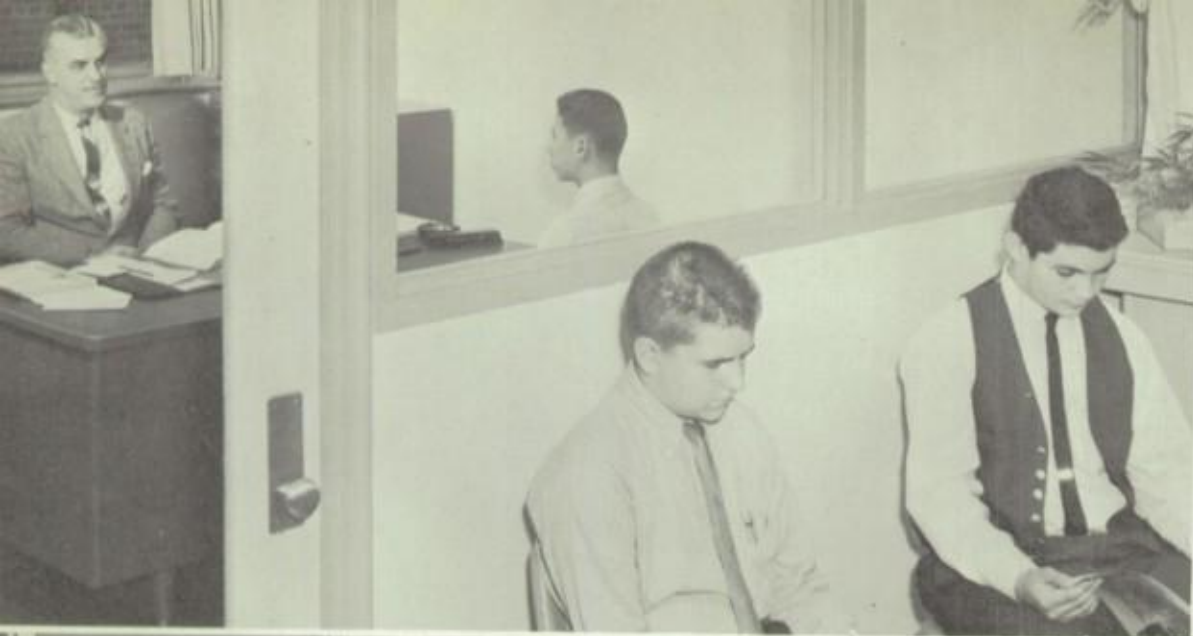

IS THE AXIS AROUND WHICH THE WORLD OF THE WEBER
STUDENT REVOLVES

J. Brusich, D. Gorman, and J. Antolowski are presenting their Religion notebooks for Father Fred Ciesla's approval.

R. Bieszczad and L. Williams pause to meditate on one of the many religious reminders posted around the school.

Below: When it comes to choosing a Classical curriculum, Father John Bujalski is the man to consult and M. Laird, R. Curry, J. Collins, and J. Jablonski know it.

Weber teaches welcome consultations with parents. Here Mr. Belmonte shows Mrs. Gryskiewicz that her son is doing well indeed.

Guidance Director Mr. Walter Klimek is the man behind the men of Weber who are chalking up such brilliant College records.

The Guidance Office always has the latest literature on College opportunities and D. Starzyk, J. Gadrim, F. Kalita, and K. Wiejaczka make periodic checks.

PREPARES WEBERITES

FOR COLLEGE AND FOR LIFE

The doorbell of the Faculty House is seldom still after school, as students come with one problem or another but even genial Father John Labno didn't expect to start off the day like this.

Seniors L. Szaraniec, F. Candioto, D. Karnicki, T. Livorsi, and D. Koziol meet in the Assistant Principal's Office to decide what Scholarships to choose.

J. Mandock, T. Sabala, T. Smith, H. Karwowski, and G. Krigas find a quiet nook in the Library conducive to study.

Rev. Edwin Zygmunt, C.R., Librarian

R. Spizzir and L. Wojcik delve into the Vertical File while P. Menet and W. Rohn consult the Card Catalogue for desired material.

The Library Display Case entices students to research projects of their own. Here T. Repel and L. Svadlenka study C.R. origins.

A Student Librarian, K. Piotrowski, explains the intricacies of the Periodicals' Room to J. Krajewski, R. Baczak, and R. Potempa.

J. Antosz is hard pressed at the Charging Desk as R. Lapetina, N. Desario, M. Marconi, M. Martorano, D. Sullivan, and J. Covello descend upon him.

The facilities of the Library added to its spaciousness make it the favorite Study Hall of all Weber students throughout the day.

THE LIBRARY

FURTHERS KNOWLEDGE

AND LEARNING

The Current Magazine Section is the favorite haunt of many before and after school hours, including P. Eichstaedt, T. Wegren, J. Borsik, W. Wojciechowski, P. Bellinger, H. Karwowski, J. Wilson.

When a feller needs a friend . . . Freshman D. Kraft finds it easy to get a tome down from the top shelf, if a Senior like H. Paszkiewicz happens to be around.

Mr. Frank Zielinski

Mr. Edward Dykla

Rev. Eugene Winkelman, C.R.

ENGLISH

HELPS THE WEBERITE TO FORMULATE
AND EXPRESS IDEAS

J. Parrillo, J. Felzan, J. Papadia, R. Panek, F. Scotello, M. Simplenski, and A. Skowronski are all ears when Father Edwin Bak explains the difference between a gerund and a participle. There is sure to be a pop test before the class is over.

Not every Speech Course is directed by a Dramatic Coach, but 'tis so at Weber where Mr. Frank Calzaretta holds sway. That's senior Bob Pierzki making with the gesture.

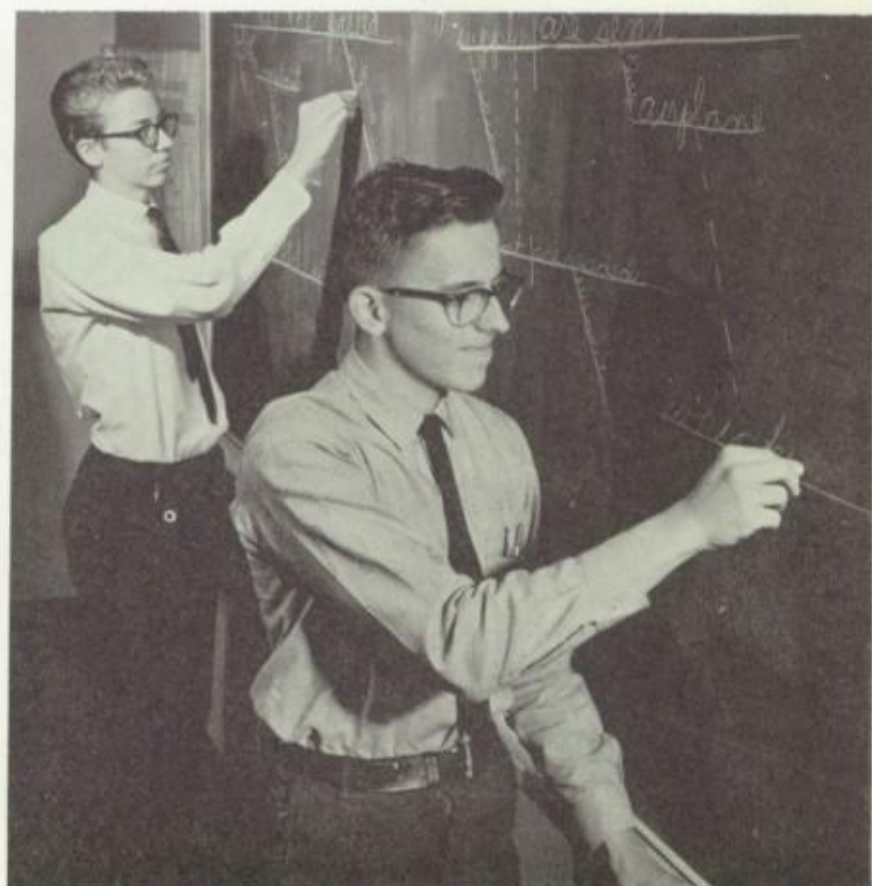

The Juniors have to learn how to face an audience, too. Popular radio and t. v. speaker, Father Thaddeus Zygowicz, sees to that. Ken Ruff is at the lectern.

The English Literature Classes are well acquainted with the library and that is where Father Edwin Michael may be found for some extra help. Bob Smolka's book review is getting the once over twice, while Den Schultz checks his over.

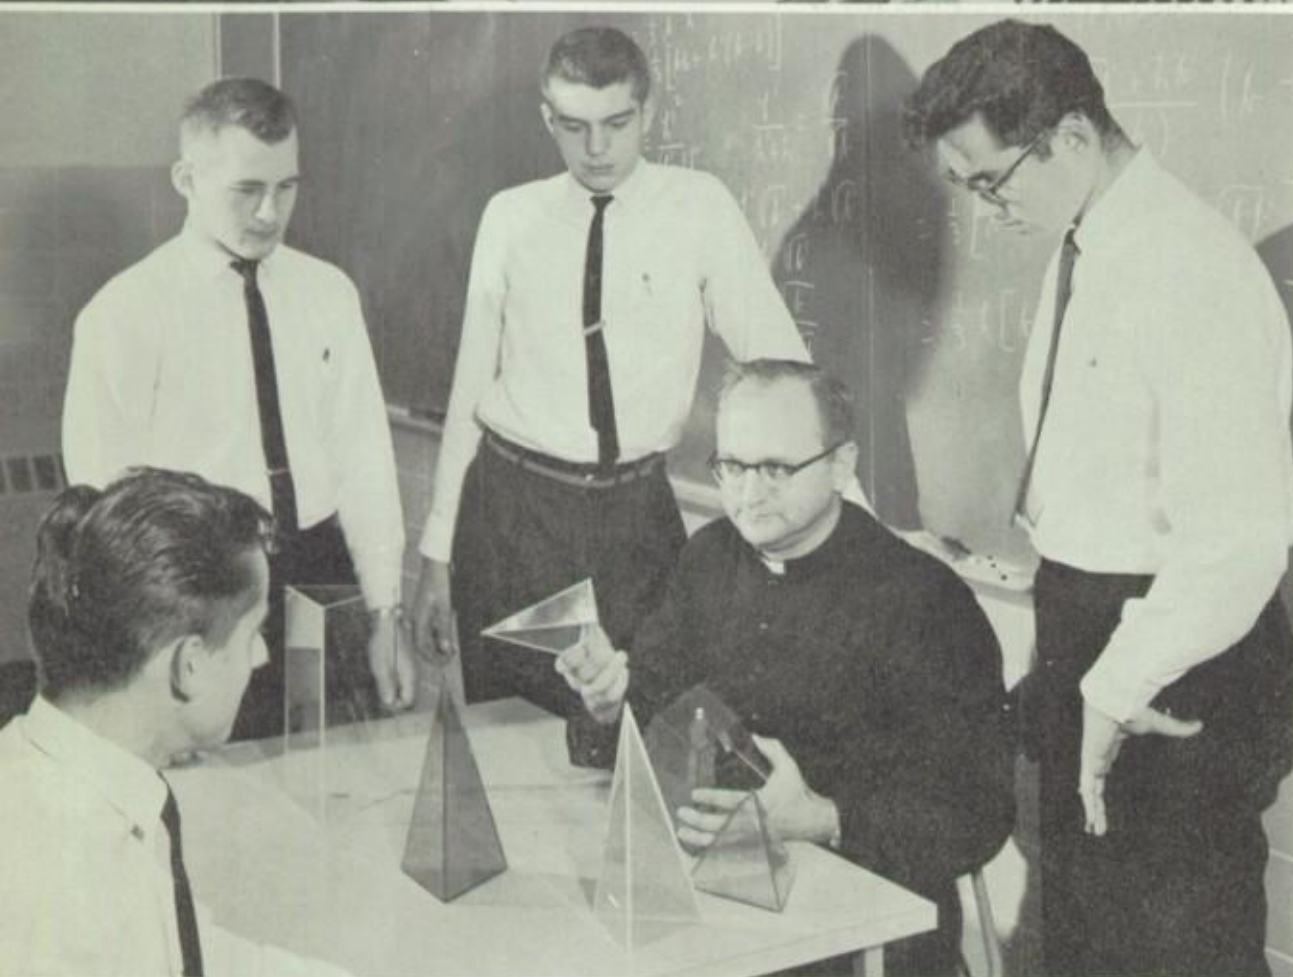

Mr. Cyril Mortell quizzes J. Covington and E. Ronan on sentence structure.

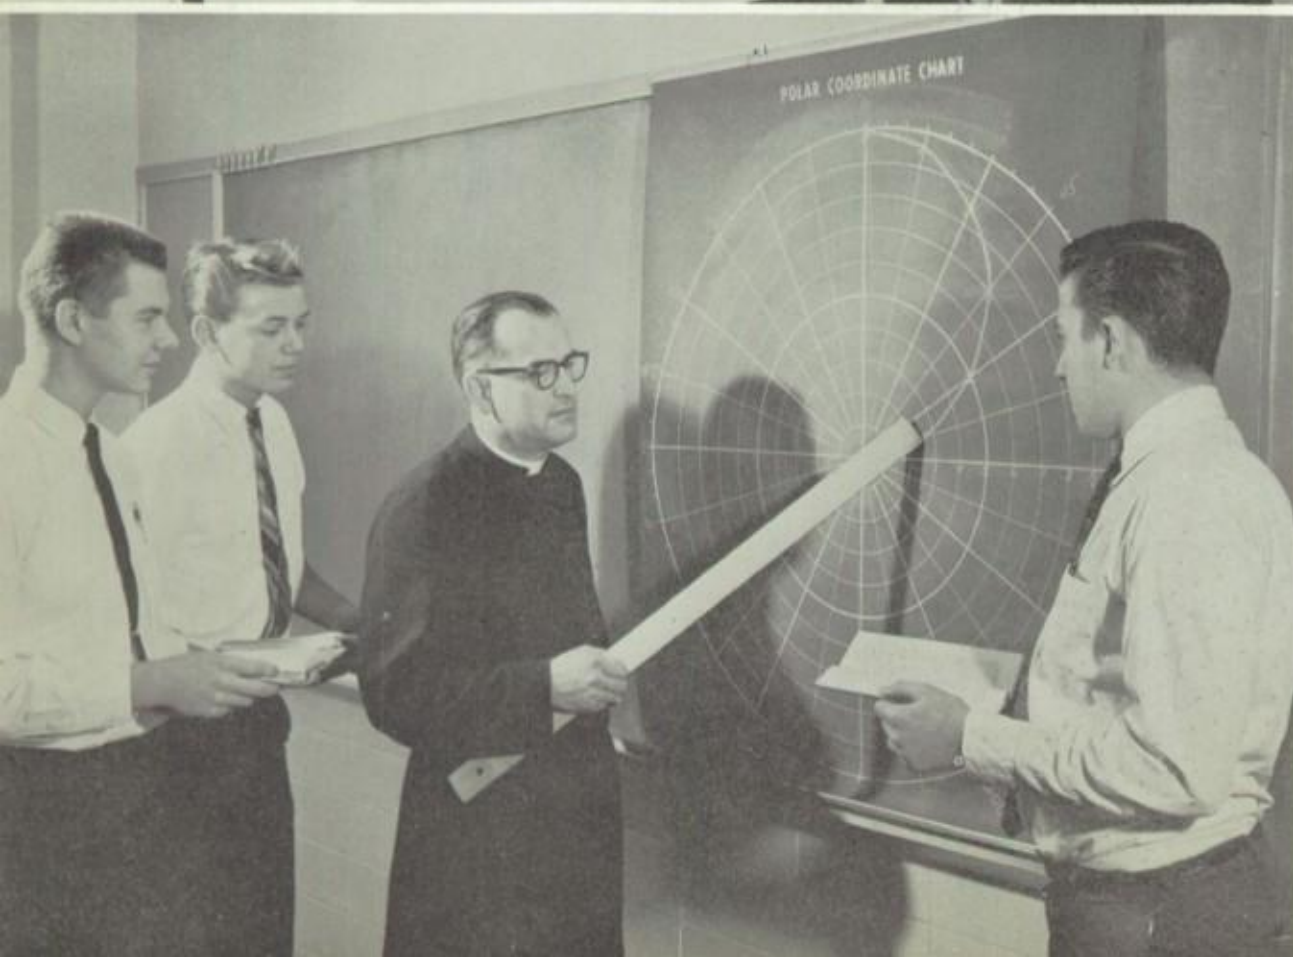

A compound-complex sentence holds no terrors for T. Kawczynski and R. Morawski.

There are a lot of angles to Plane Geometry and Father Francis Rog makes the most of them, M. Wiater, R. Kaleta, and J. Cich can well testify.

Solid Geometry is child's play in Father Edwin Karłowicz's Senior 11 Class because they play so seriously, as evinced by R. Michalak, D. Karnicki, T. Hebda, and J. Hart.

R. Kator, R. Pischke, and J. Trytek find Trigonometry interesting even if Father Adolph Istok has them going around in circles.

Mr. Arthur Belmonte drills A. Alunni and M. Benages in primary algebraic skills.

MATHEMATICS

IS INVALUABLE TO THE WEBER

STUDENT BECAUSE IT IS THE

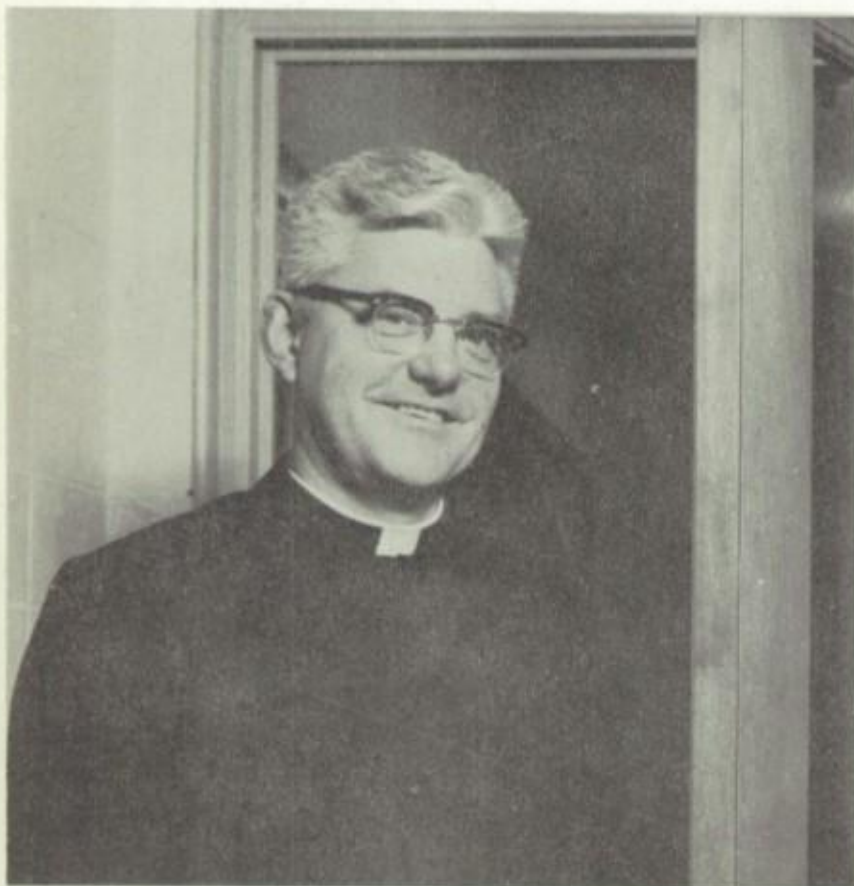

HANDMAID OF SCIENCE

P. Guzaldo, R. Zurek, and M. Rice are inducted into the beginnings of mathematical reasoning by Mr. Frederick Ludwig.

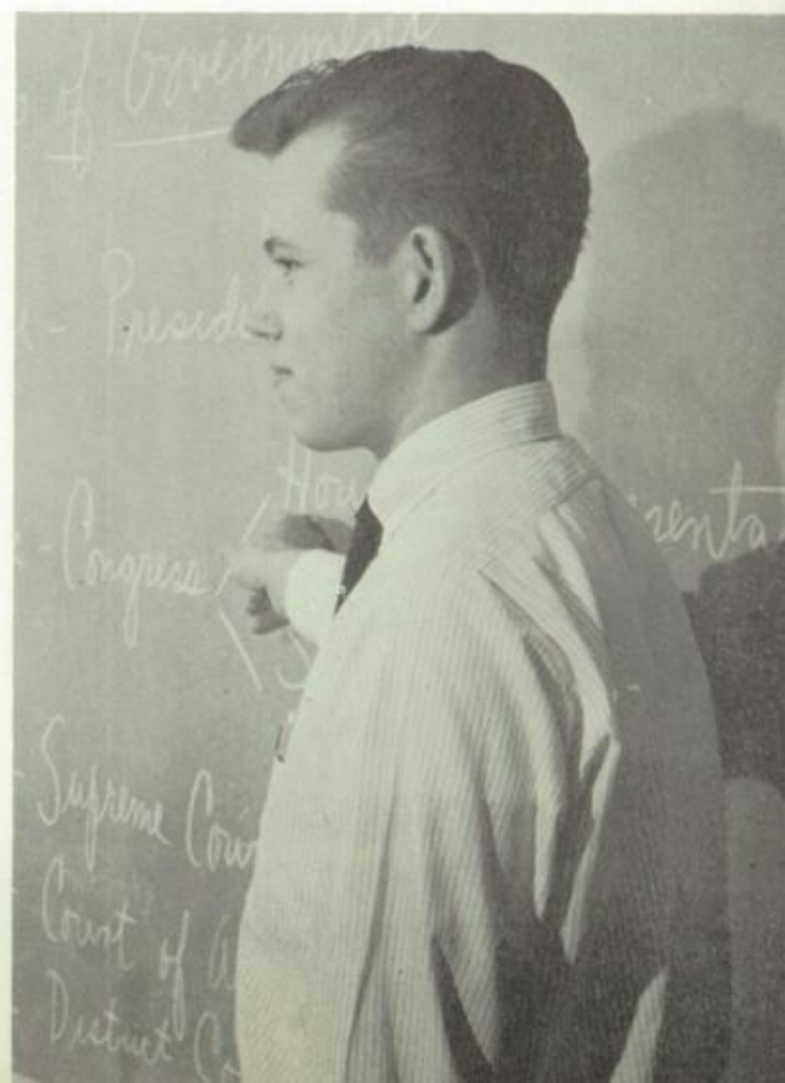

K. Iwanicki, R. Trągasz, J. Szafraniec, D. Starzyk, and S. Madura have apparently caught Father John Iwicki's pun on the run. The rest of the class is too engrossed in Father John's story of the growth of Western Monasticism.

Rev. Edwin Bak, C.R.

J. Piechocki proves to the class that he is ready for his Civics test.

Father Chester Mitoraj plots the Army Outposts that had to cope with the Indian uprisings in the post-bellum period for R. Villalaz, J. Carlson, and C. Obuchowski.

HISTORY AND GOVERNMENT

PREPARE THE WEBERITE

FOR TOMORROW'S COMPLEX

WORLD

Rev. Casimir Suwanski, C.R.

Rev. John Labno, C.R.

Rev. John Bujalski, C.R.

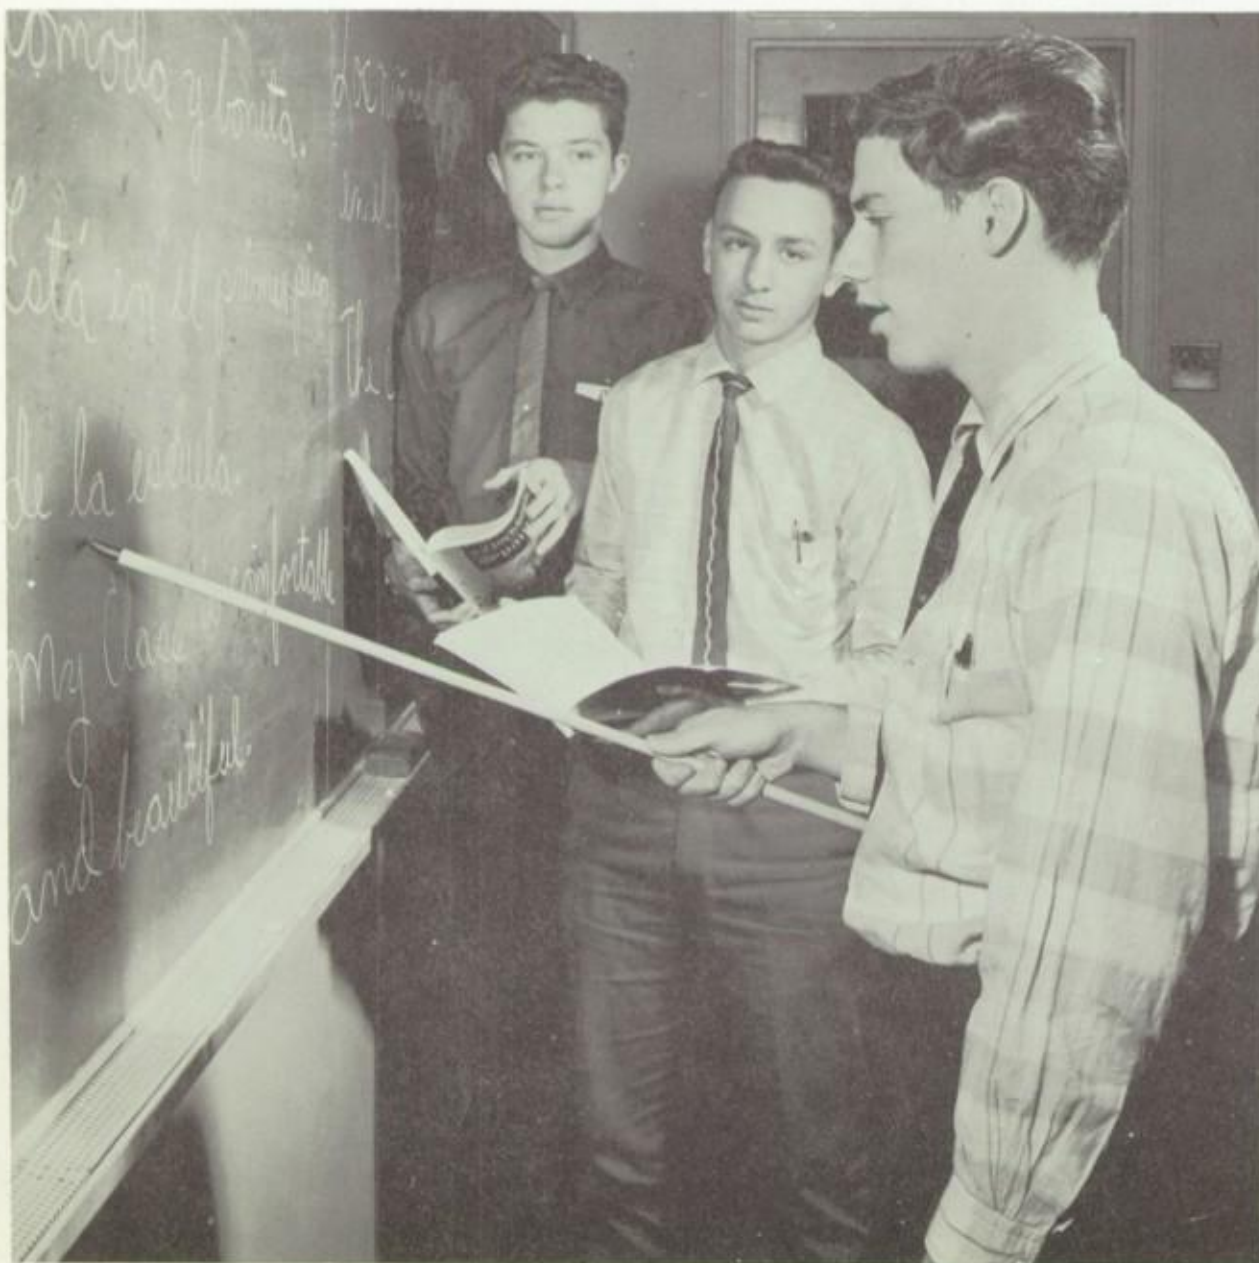

It's all Greek to Bob Pociask but that's what Father Joseph Przysucha has been teaching him and his classmates all year.

LANGUAGES

ENABLE WEBERITES TO UNDERSTAND THE
CULTURES OF YESTERYEAR AND TODAY

Father Stanley Smuda never lacks for answers in Latin 116.

Tom Bolin can't go wrong in Spanish Class with Senores T. Wegren and G. Ogurek ready to step into the breach.

Rev. Joseph Kent, C.R.

Rev. Henry Gomulka, C.R.

Mr. William Bonk illustrates the wonderful order of the Solar System in living color to Freshman 109, the class of future Cosmonauts, Astronauts & what have you.

Freshman Class 114 would like to first know what the earth can do for them before they go off sailing into space. Mr. James Righeimer shows L. Pinkowski, R. Roche, and R. Nally how "black gold" is extracted.

GENERAL SCIENCE

INTRODUCES FRESHMEN
TO THE MYSTERIES OF GOD'S UNIVERSE

Chicago's Brookfield Zoo was made to order for field trips for students of Zoology and then the dolphin is a Weber symbol and hard to beat for fun or learning.

You can't study cell structure without a microscope and Mr. Alfred Ostrowski strongly believes in coupling theory with practice.

BIOLOGY

HAS SOPHOMORES DELVING INTO THE SECRETS OF
PLANT AND ANIMAL LIFE

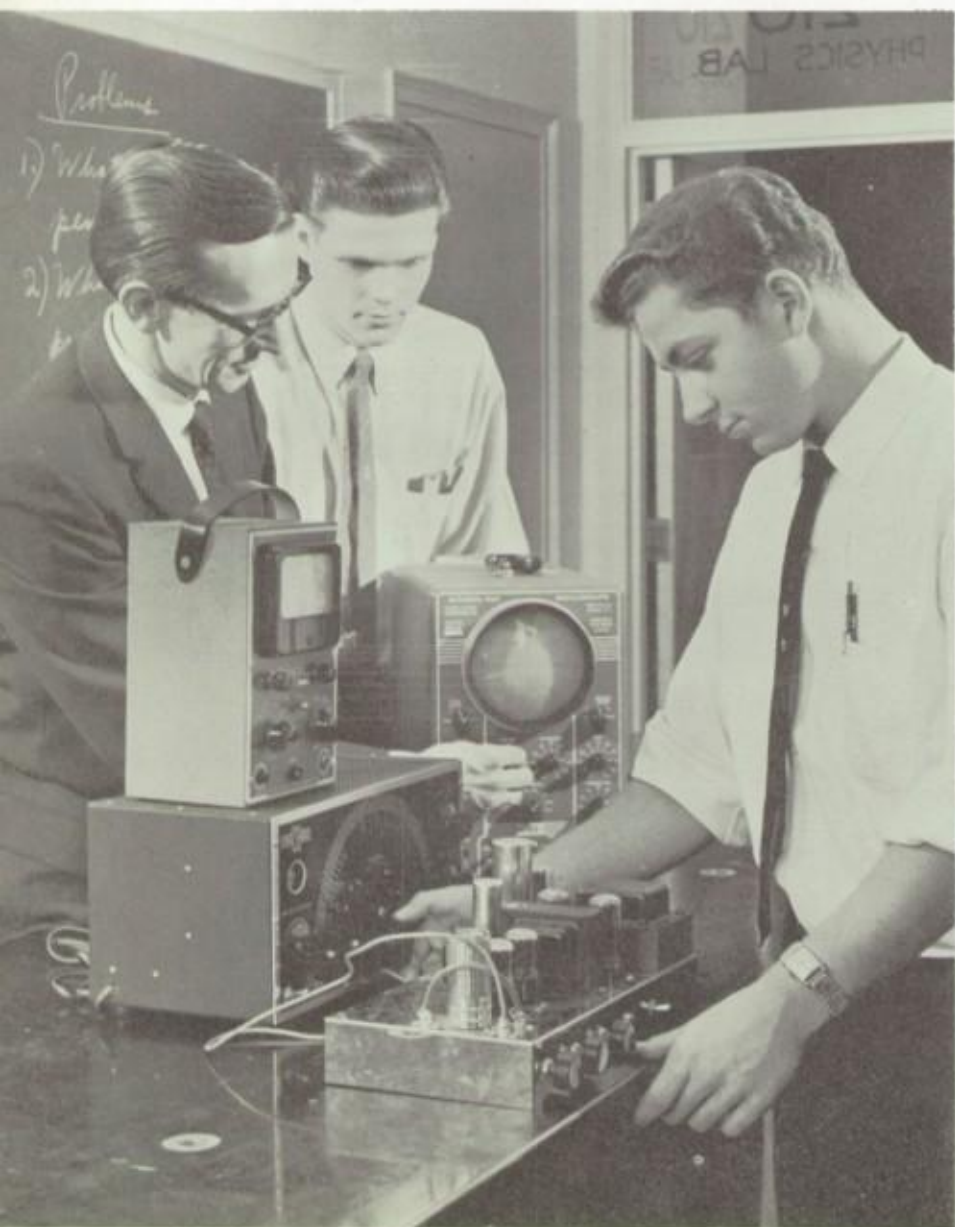

CHEMISTRY AND PHYSICS

PLANT THE SEEDS OF WONDER IN THE MIND OF THE WEBERITE AS HE FINDS "HE" CAN TRANSFORM SUBSTANCES AND CONTROL
MATTER AND MOTION.

Proud owners of radium-dial watches, J. Dombroski, D. Joyce, and N. Malinowski learn from Mr. Thaddeus Lisowski how a Geiger Counter measures radiation and . . . decide to buy new watches.

Mr. Frank Zapo explains rudimentary laws of electronics to D. Latkowski and D. Kalka.

Advanced chemical distillation is no problem for W. Marutzky, L. Wojcik, and A. Kujawski — with Father Paul Balcer around.

SOCIOLOGY, BUSINESS LAW, AND ECONOMICS

HELP THE WEBERITE

ASSESS CONTEMPORARY SOCIETY, CAPITAL, AND

LABOR IN THE LIGHT OF THE TEACHINGS OF THE DIVINE

MASTER AND HIS CHURCH.

Mr. Edward Dykla acquaints his Senior 19 Sociology Class with President Kennedy's proposed Medicare legislation.

Business Law Class goes into high gear when Harry Nash and Dave McClain combine their legal talents . . .

Mr. Thomas Rorke brings the Ivy League look and manner to his classes even though his approach to Economics is not the Harvard one of the Welfare State.

MUSIC

Mr. Frank Zielinski tests Senior 18 on their knowledge of basic theory problems before proceeding on to the works of great artists and their dramatic lives.

The Drama Appreciation course under Mr. Frank Calzaretta's tutelage begins in the classroom but doesn't end there. Stagecraft, lighting techniques, costuming, makeup, sound effects are best learned in actual productions.

AND DRAMA APPRECIATION

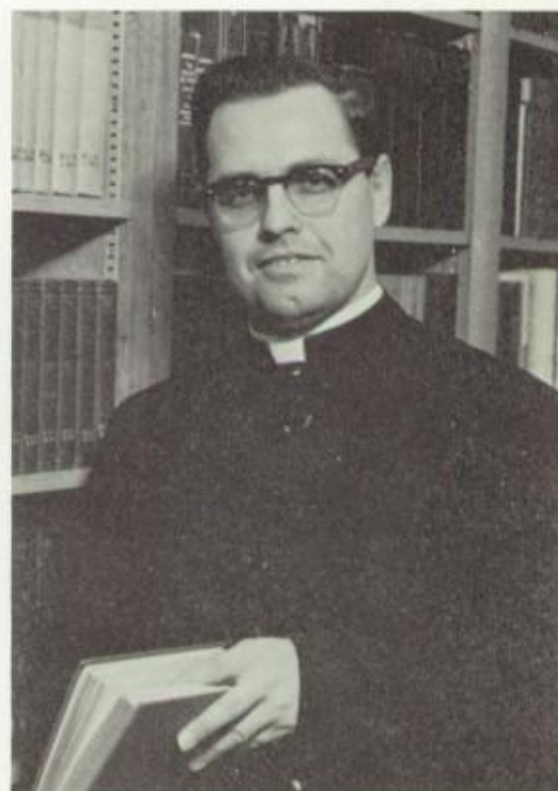

DISCOVER AND DEVELOP THE AESTHETIC SIDE OF THE WEBERITE

Rev. Fred Ciesla, C.R.
Music Moderator

Mr. Glenn Smith
Band Director

Rev. Edwin Zygmunt, C.R.
Drama Moderator

Mr. William Dreier
Trombone Instructor

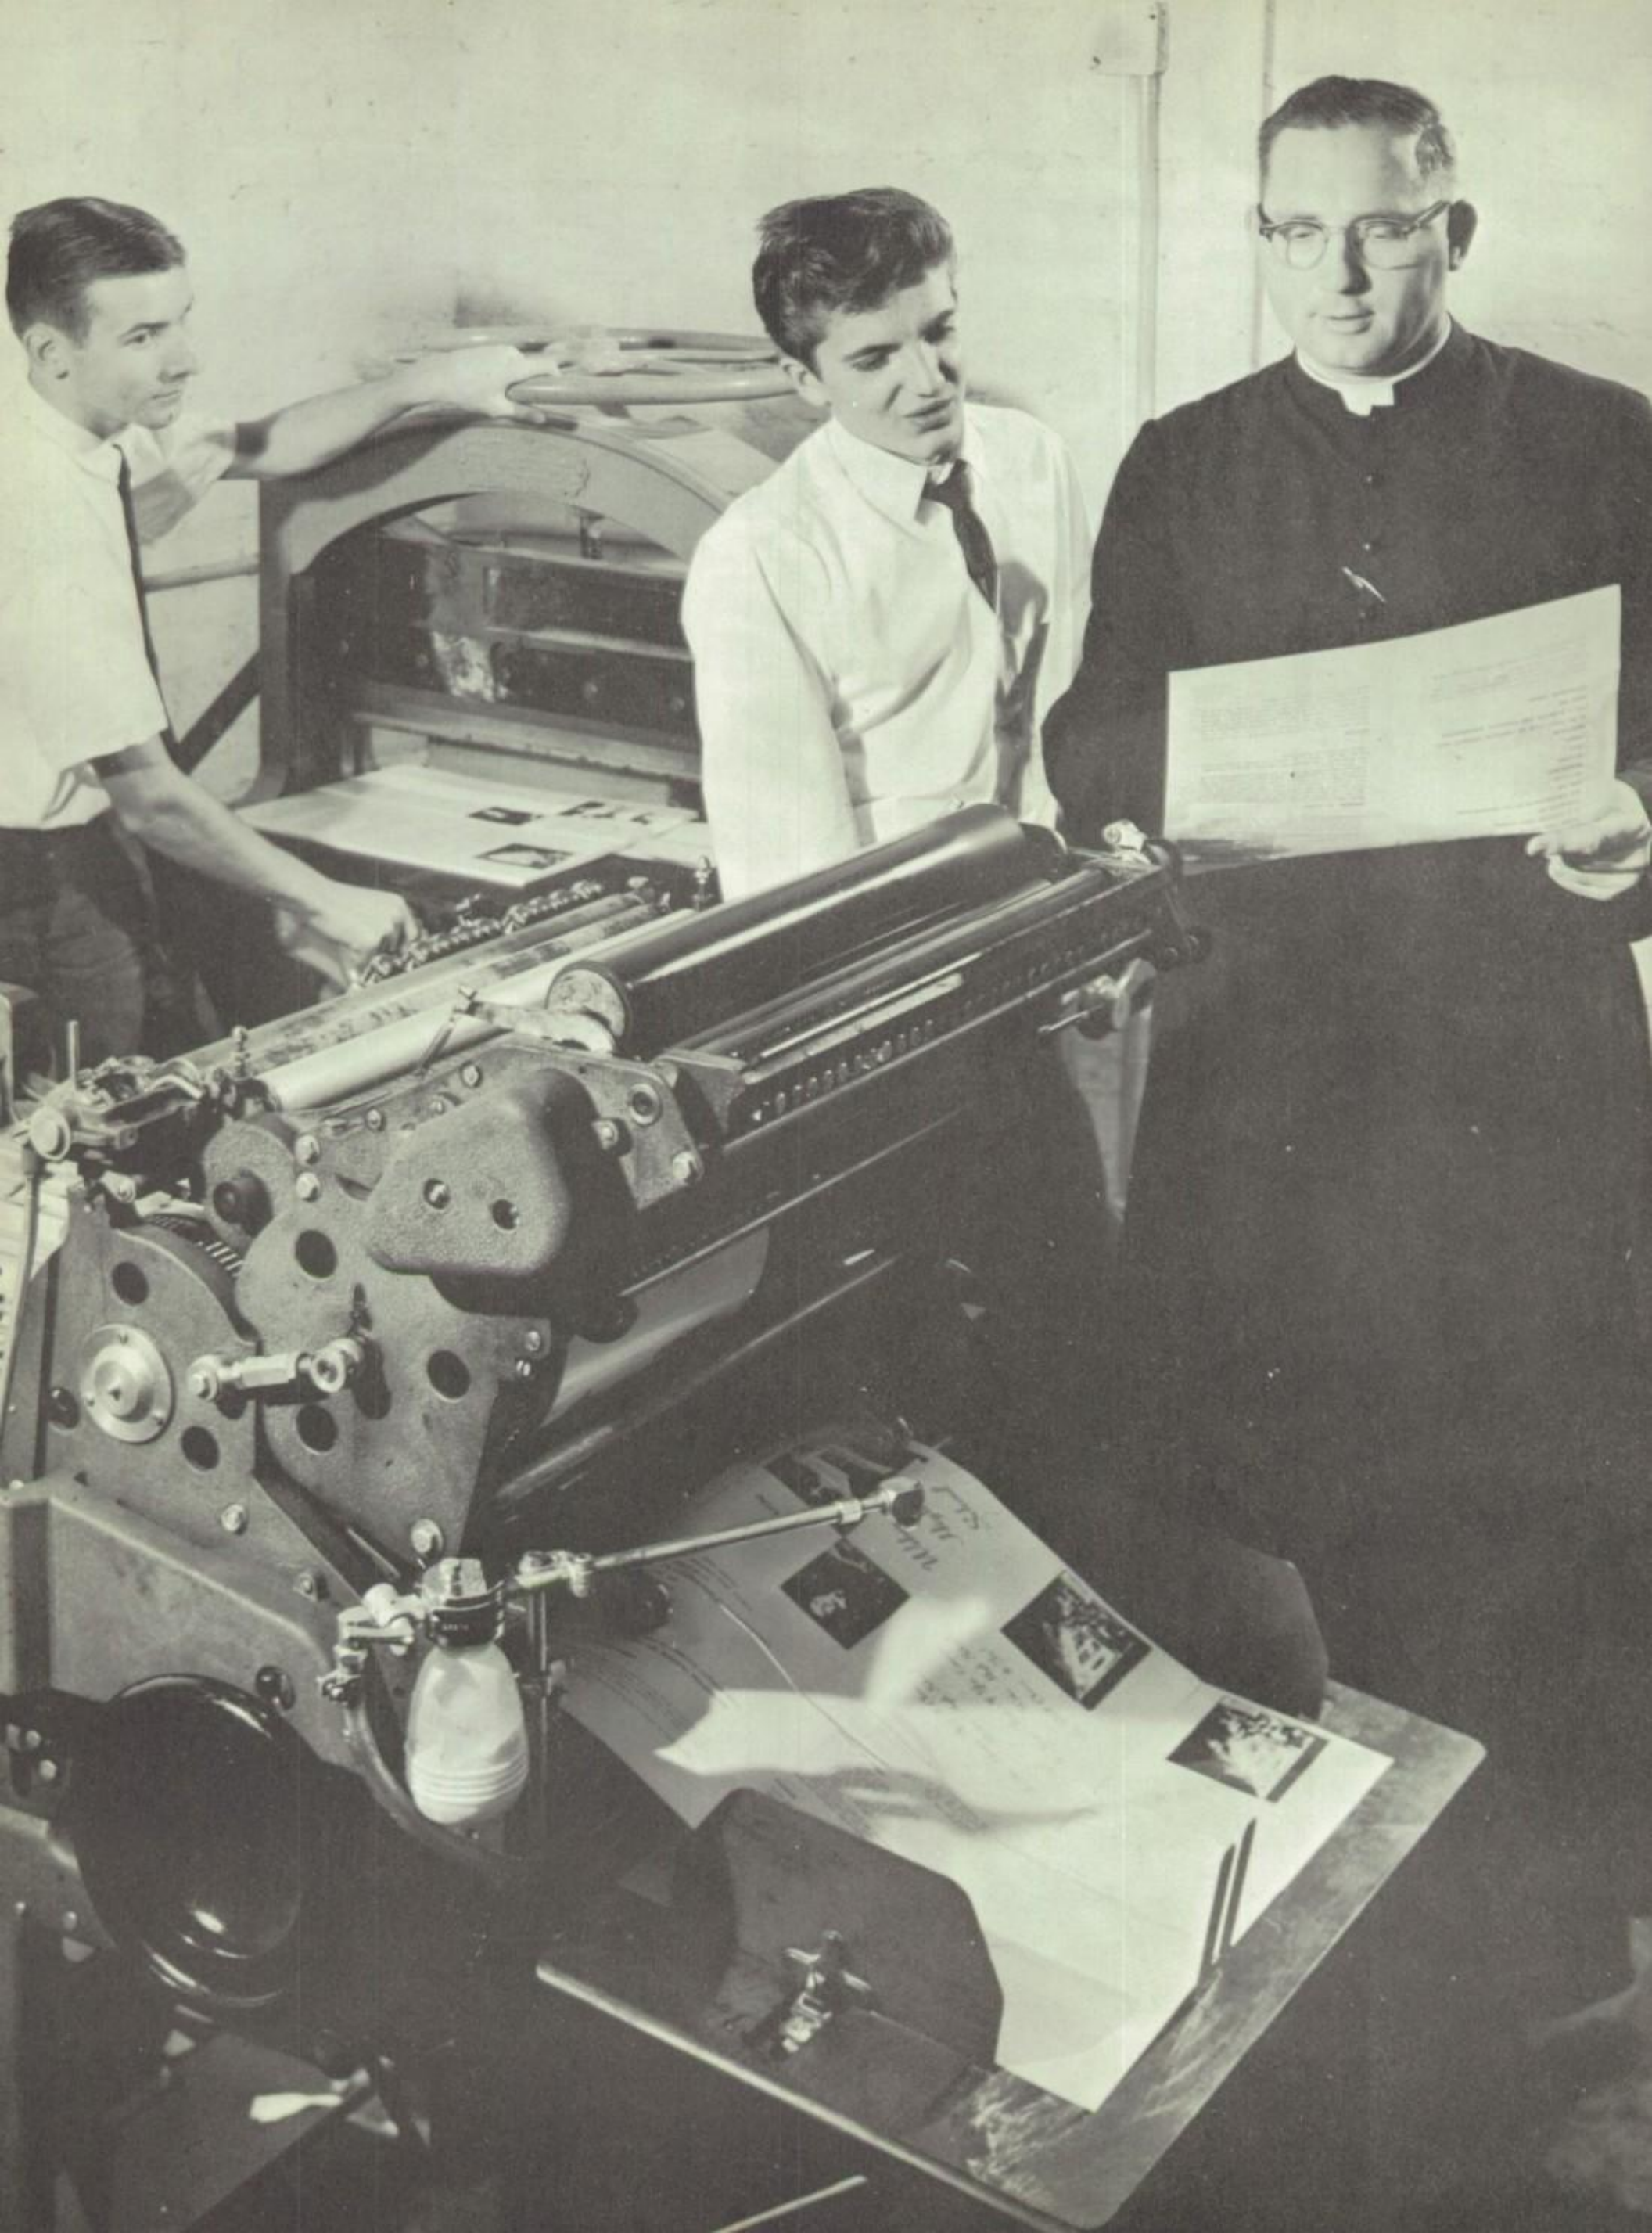

Mr. Stanley Micus
Clarinet Instructor

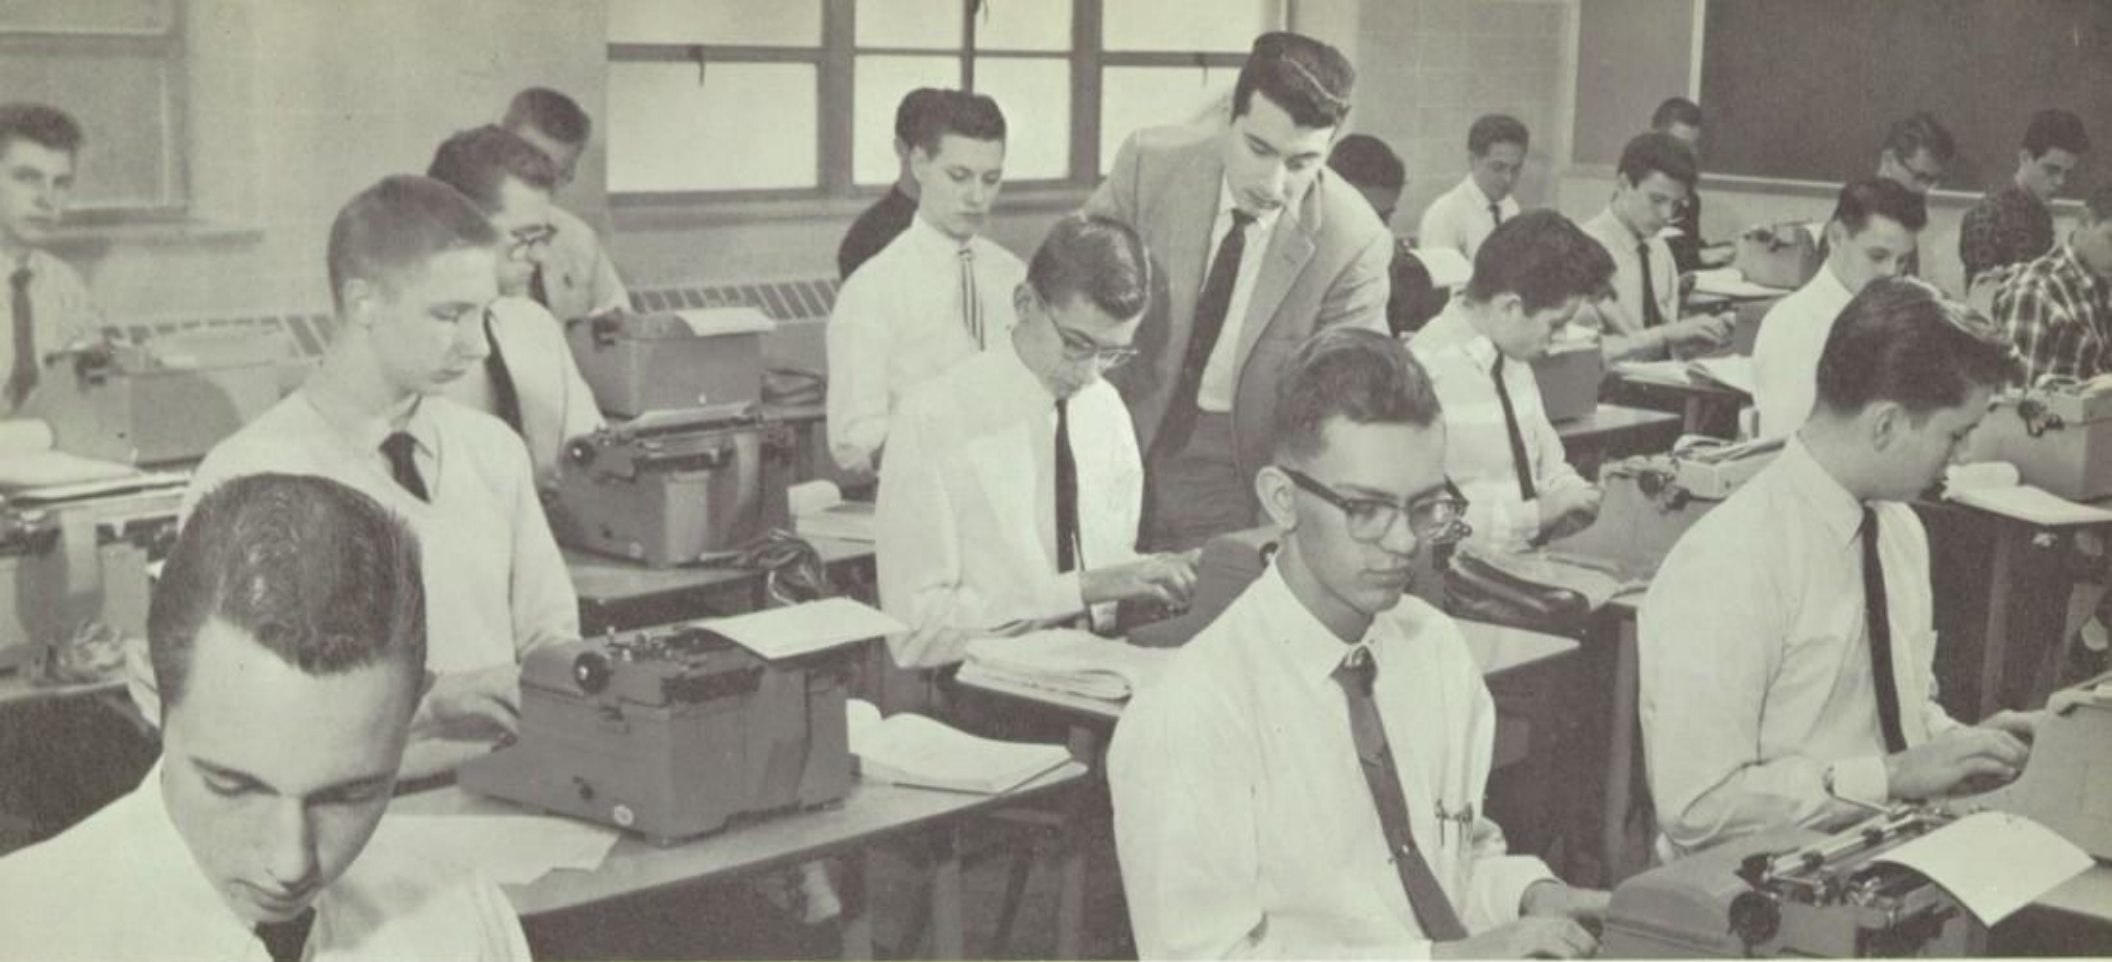

Mr. James Radon
Flute Instructor

Mr. Charles Mach
Tuba Instructor

Bob Schoenstene gets a tip from Mr. Frank Calzaretta on how to properly center a block form business letter as his classmates of Junior 201 merrily pound away on their typewriters, that is except for K.L.

Mr. George Bob assigns some plates for the morrow, though it seems that Senior 13 finds sufficient the burden of the day.

TYPING AND MECHANICAL DRAWING

PREPARE THE WEBERITE FOR COLLEGE TERM PAPERS AND I. I. T.

PHYSICAL EDUCATION

IMPRESSES WEBER MEN WITH THE IMPORTANCE OF PHYSICAL ACTIVITY

FOR SOUND PHYSICAL, MENTAL, AND MORAL GROWTH

MSSRS. J. Dykal, R. Dianovsky, A. Belmonte, and J. Sassano always start off the Phy Ed Classes with Calisthenics.

A little bodily contact a la football is being taught John Richter and Dick Syrek by Mr. James Righeimer.

No, this is not the Weber version of the Bossa Nova; just a demonstration of soccer techniques.

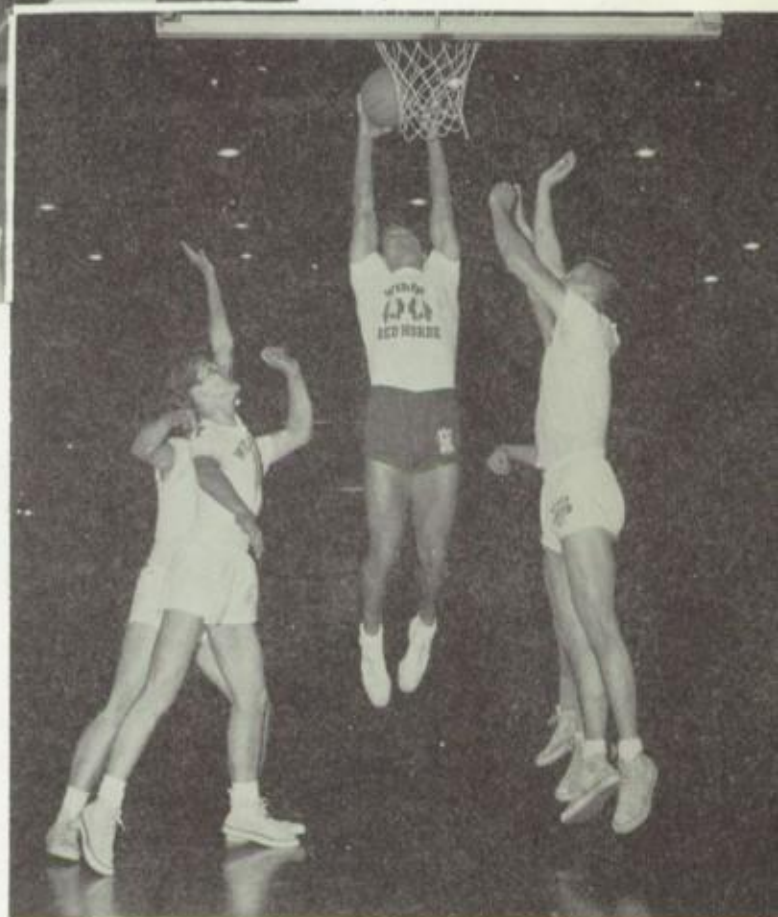

Joe Thomas bristles with energy as he gets off a stinging shot in volley-ball on an assist from Tom Karasiewicz and George Siuda in P. E. class.

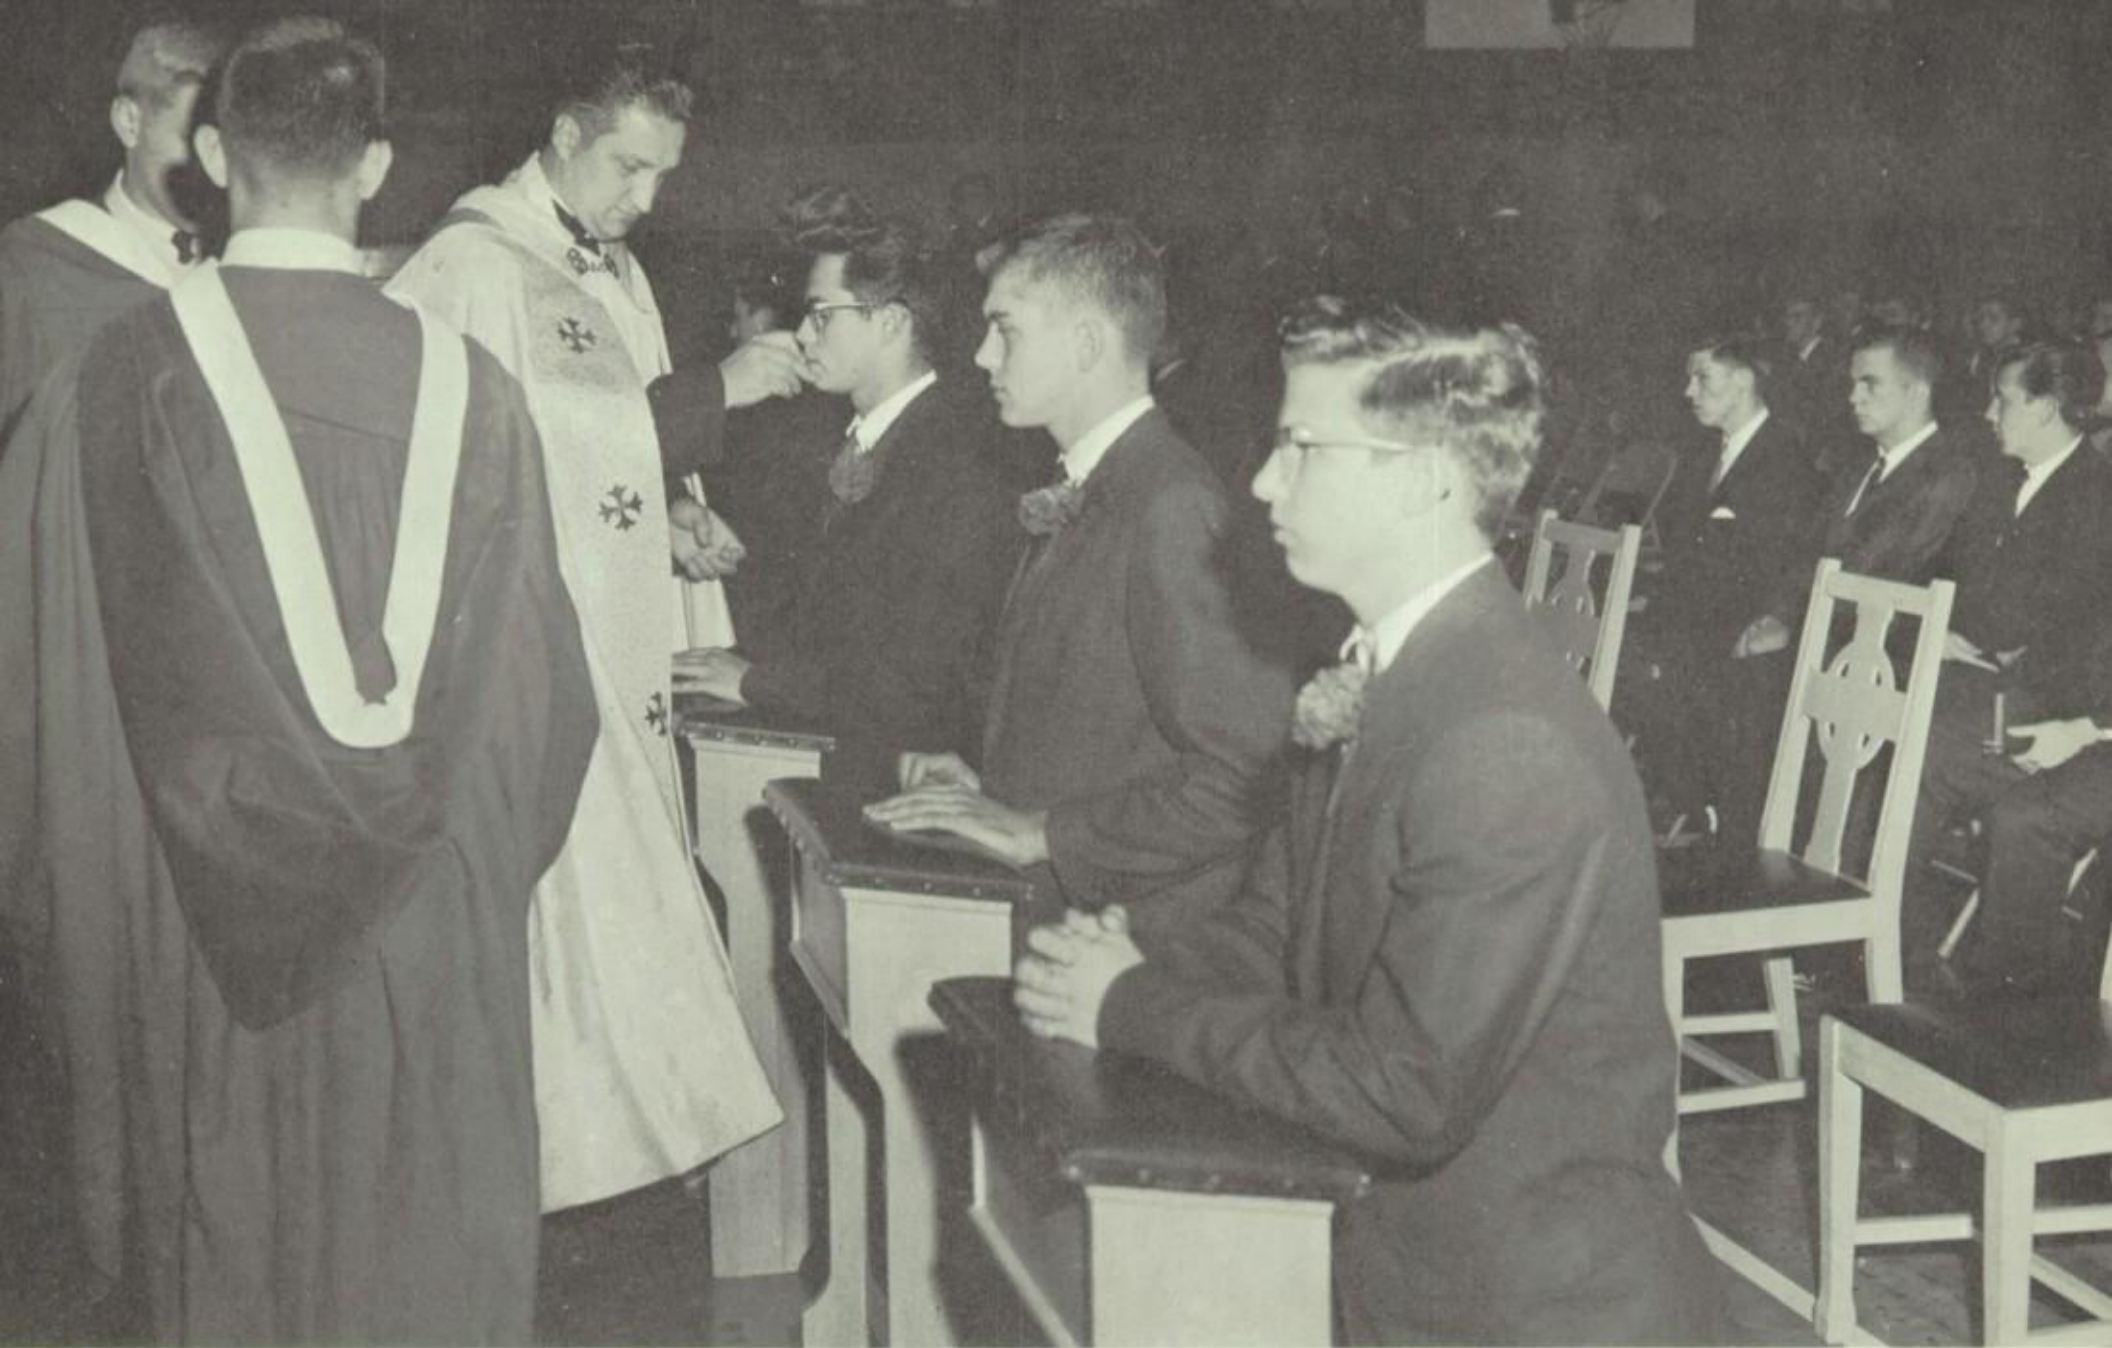

Mr. John Dykal and Mr. Ronald Dianovsky explain muscle development through proper exercise to Leo Stoller, D. Dobesh, and R. Schafernak as they try out the stall bars.

Jim Hoffman snares the rebound as George Bagdo misses the basket.

Mr. Joseph Sassano Jr.
Director of the Physical Education Program

John Hart receives his Senior Class ring from Father George as a visible reminder that the school expects him to practice all that he has learned in it throughout his life. Next in line are Tom Hebda and Dan Kamykowski.

SENIORS

CLASS OF 1963

Realization that they were Seniors dawned on the Class of '63 on the morning of November 16 when in solemn ceremony they received their class rings from the Reverend Principal, Father George Jendrach, C.R. That the portals of Weber were soon to close upon them and that they would be joining the ranks of thousands of other alumni, registered only, however, on January 28 when they started leaving for the Senior Closed Retreats at Villa Redeemer in Glenview.

As they began to look to the future with enthusiasm they began to recall all the joys and heartbreaks and successes that were theirs in the WEBER WORLD and would now be a part of them as they went their separate ways into the wide world beyond.

Gay banter during recreation is spontaneous after a good general confession and one of Father Schwarz's down-to-earth conferences, Jules Pilarski, Bob Ziaja, Bob Munro, and Randy Siegmund find.

SENIOR CLASS OFFICERS

Seated are the Divisional Class Officers: Robert Smolka (President), Kenneth Piotrowski (Secretary), Daniel Karnicki (Treasurer), and Ernest Kopczynski (Vice-President).

SOPHO

ACQUIRE ATHLETIC SKILL IN WEBER

Casey Pasieka has already won a starter's berth on the Light quintet.

All Sophomores are scholars, athletes, and Don Juans without peer. One has only to ask them. And they're everywhere. You can't avoid them. They've infiltrated the whole WEBER WORLD. Their confident enthusiasm knows neither bounds nor limits, and that is precisely what endears them to faculty and fellow-students alike. The coaches feed them to the long and lean Seniors on the fields of combat and, bloody but unbowed, they come back for more of same. The teachers load them so with work that they spout Caesar

Miller convinced their partners to wait for a slower number.

MORES

SOCIAL POISE ACADEMIC POLISH WORLD

Jim DesRochers is equally at home at Mass in both the Latin Rite and the Oriental Rite.

in their sleep and bisect angles in their dreams, and they concentrate on beefing up their averages. Juniors and Seniors tolerate them so as to be able to assert their superiority over them, and they take it all in stride, sometimes even turning tables on them. At Sock Hops and dances, Freshmen and Sophomores from Alvernia, Madonna, and Notre Dame feign to ignore them, but when asked to dance . . . ah what a change of heart. Thank God for Sophomores, for without them what would High Schools do?

Les Koryczan with the bass drum is typical of the many Sophs in the Band.

THEMSELVES QUICKLY

According to custom, the incoming Freshmen were beset by hordes of Weberites who explained the ins-and-outs of Weber to them, introduced them to their "Big Brothers", etc. These necessary preliminaries out of the way, the Frosh were courted by the Band, the Glee Club, the Choir, the Indians, and other clubs. Over a hundred went off to show their wares on the football field. Even before the first marking period was upon them, they were completely enveloped in the currents and undercurrents of the WEBER WORLD. And it must be said, in all fairness, that Classes, athletic teams, and organizations have benefitted no end from these bearers of new ideas and new outlooks from over ninety Chicago parishes.

The Frosh are trying out a secret formation they hope Coach Sassano will buy. Taking a page out of Red Blaik's book, they go him one (or is it 2?) better.

THE

The earth orbits around the sun, the seasons come and go, and night follows day in an unchanging pattern. The life of man on earth, however, knows no such static pattern. In every epoch man must find new symbols and representations of the unchanging truths of God revealed and taught him. He must discover again the meaning of life to him as an individual and as a member of society. And this he can only do through self-expression or self-creation in activities.

So it is, too, that the young Weberite's pursuit of knowledge is only partially satisfied in the classroom. It is outside the classroom through participation in the spiritual, cultural, and social activities offered by the school that he can put into concrete form the thoughts and impressions that are exclusively his own and learn from them.

In the EXTRA-CURRICULAR WORLD OF WEBER a student can learn much from the military roll of drums, or from the liturgical chant at Mass, or from the planning and running of a social year. He will certainly experience both failure and success; criticism and a pat on the back. Best of all, he will know the thrill of accomplishment and completion. And each time that he does he will grow just a bit more mature. For the more he engages in any activity, the more he will discover that his parents and family and friends and teachers are only a part of an appreciative audience spurring him on to greater things; that he can no longer depend on them to do his tasks for him; that success lies only in himself.

CHRISTMAS IN SONG

WEBER - ALVERNIA CHORUS

The Weber Glee Club, the Alvernia Glee Club, and the Weber Drama Department, under the direction of Mr. Frank Zielinski, Sister M. Marcina, O.S.F., and Mr. Frank Calzaretta respectively, combined their varied and many talents to produce a Christmas Program of song interspersed with dramatic tableaux that will long live in the memories of all who attended. The Christmas Story was never more alive, more vibrant, and more personal than that night.

WEBER MARCHING BAND

CATHOLIC HIGH SCHOOL CHAMPS 1962 - 1963

Not that any Weberite ever doubted the Weber Marching Band's claim to the title, but in open competition with the other Catholic High School Bands of the city at the Armory on Kedzie and North on December 16, the Weber Band officially gained recognition as the Catholic High School Champion of Chicago. Whether the Rev. Moderator, Father Fred Ciesla, C.R., or the Band's esteemed Director, Mr. Glenn Smith, was more overjoyed is a moot question. Certainly the Band Members were not less so. Add another crown to the SCHOOL OF CHAMPIONS!

No less distinguished were the Band's performances at the Annual Band Festival held on February 26 at Weber, or at the Catholic Band Festival held on March 24 at McCormick Place, or at the Spring Concert on April 21 at Weber.

SANCTUARY SOCIETY

SERVES GOD BY SERVING HIS PRIESTS

It is the privilege and duty of the members of the Sanctuary Society to assist the priests at all religious ceremonies held at the school and to service the Faculty Chapel on Sundays and Holy Days of Obligation. Led by Denis Oross, they have done this efficiently and systematically while fostering in themselves a deeper awareness of spiritual sanctity.

THE WEBER NEWS

A new editor-in-chief, Ernie Kopczynski, and Father John Iwicki, C.R. put their heads together and produced a WEBER NEWS this school year that rivalled last year's outstanding issues. A noticeable improvement were the many pictures and the "on-timeliness" of the paper. This is due to the fact that Weber's own Print Shop under the direction of Father Casey Suwanski, C.R. has taken over the press chores. Add the hard work of the staff and the end product is a literary effort of which every Weberite can be proud.

The Editorial Board and Senior Staff Writers meet with Father John Iwicki, C.R. to plan the next issue: K. Piotrowski, D. Oross, E. Kopczynski (Editor), M. Wujcik, T. Wysocki, and R. Gnaski.
 J. Piegzik, F. Marcinkowski, J. Bianchi, Father John. and A. Ziemba.

Officers of the HERALDERS: John Piegzik (Secretary), Michael Opiola (President), Ronald Obuchowski (Vice-President), Edward Sullivan (Treasurer), and Richard Galuska (Sergeant-at-Arms); Rev. Edwin Zygmunt, C.R. (Moderator) and Mr. Frank Calzaretta (Director).

The Heralders, an organization devoted to performing and fostering interest in dramatics, has perennially given experience to its members and enjoyment to the student body. This year, under the direction of Mr. Frank Calzaretta, Weber Thespians rendered entertaining performances of such plays as THE DESPERATE HOURS, THE LARK, and BYE BYE BIRDIE.

In an attempt to combine sacred song with sacred drama, The Heralders joined with the Weber and Alvernia Choruses to produce a dramatized CHRISTMAS IN SONG, proving that no task is too difficult for Weber actors.

It must be noted, however, that the unit is not just a group of actors who like to put on plays and skits; it is comprised of hard-working men, whose jobs vary from actor to stage-hand, from make-up artist to electrician.

The Weber library is the largest High School library in Chicago and its circulation is heavy. The Departments of English, History, and Religion, particularly, see to it. The Library Club, therefore, has its work cut out for it. Besides issuing books and shelving them they have to find them for all comers or, at least, help them find them. Then there are the current magazines that have to be filed each month, not to mention the posters that have to be put up or the special projects of the year.

LIBRARY CLUB

UNION PANAMERICANA

The Spanish Club promotes an interest in the cultures and civilizations of the Spanish-speaking countries. Movies lectures, and social activities are all on the agenda. The highlight of the year was a Spanish Fiesta sponsored by Dr. and Mrs. Benages at their River Forest home. Everyone attempted to speak Spanish and the versatile Dan Kmety has it all down on tape. It was then that the moderator, Father Joseph Kent, C.R., decided on a new text for next year: EMBARRASSING MOMENTS IN SPANISH, How to Avoid Them.

LA VOZ continued to make its appearance with Rudy Villalaz as Editor-in-Chief. On the Editorial Board are Edwin Sterczek, Hector Diaz, Chester Sterczek, and Jim Benages.

James Benages (President), Daniel Kmety (Secretary), Rudolph Villala (Vice-President), and Chester Sterczek, (Treasurer).

E. Janka, J. Spinato, K. Walanski, J. Manicki, E. Buczkowski, S. Maurice, D. Savaiano, E. Sterczek, and M. Pozdol. R. Bolanowski, H. Diaz, M. Showalter, R. Siegmund, R. Bolero, D. Gillespie, L. Svadlenka, and R. Parenti.

BUILDERS OF SCHOOL SPIRIT

When a student graduates, he leaves Weber with a great variety of attributes. Among these are the experience and maturity gained through the intellectual, social, and athletic activities in which he has participated. But, far more significant than these, he departs with the renowned Weber spirit which permeates all these activities, and binds them together in an attitude which typifies and embodies true school spirit. At Weber the Indians, the Cheerleaders, the Publicity Club, and the Senior Social Committee together with the Band and the Color Guard are the links between the student body and all school activities. The focal point of their role is precisely to instill and foster good school spirit. It is spirit not only for the gridiron, the court, or the diamond, or the pool. These are only some of its outlets. It should extend to the classroom, to the stage, to the ball room, to the home. Such spirit makes for supremacy in every field of endeavor.

THE

The Resurrectionist Fathers regard High School as a training ground where the physical, intellectual, and moral powers of the teen-ager are so to be developed as to prepare him for the accomplishment of his life's work and for the attainment of his eternal destiny. Hence the Resurrectionist philosophy of education takes into consideration the whole person and the whole of human personality. Now a boy can be taught to think with mathematics and language; his interest can be sparked with science; he can be helped to understand himself with history, English, and speech. But what course can teach the student to fit himself into the cold, hard reality of life, to roll with the punch, to function as a small cog in the vast human machine? Such things cannot come from a textbook, they must be learned from experience; and this is the purpose of athletics.

Athletics, of course, are of great value in physical development, but Weber High School is not interested solely in building great athletes. Weber is concerned with the well-rounded individual. For it is by participation in athletic contests that the student learns that if he wishes to accomplish anything, he must work for it. Only through team sports can he learn to work in unity and harmony with his teammates. On the football field, baseball diamond, basketball court, tennis court, cinder track, golf course, in the swimming pool, in the shell he discovers that defeat is not the end of all, but rather a stepping stone to later success.

And when a boy realizes that victory is not an easy thing and he can take both triumph and disaster in stride, then athletics have served their purpose. For the athletic world is the first taste of the hard world the student must adjust to if he is to meet with success.

A GLIMPSE OR TWO AT THE 1962 SEASON LEAGUE GAMES

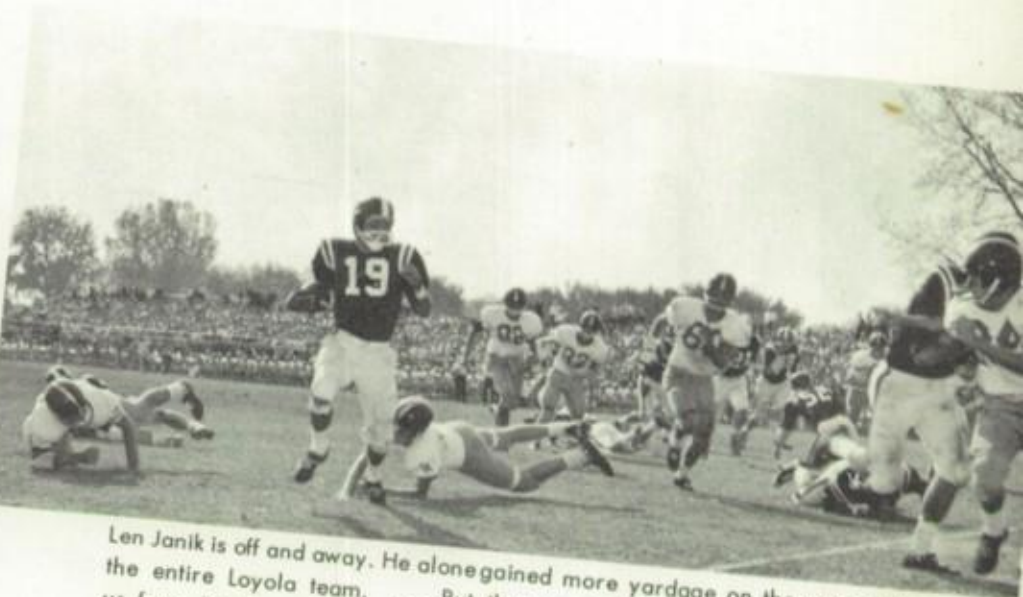

R. Wollenberg, L. Stoller, S. Court, and E. Bush show the determination of the Weber line that wouldn't quit against a gigantic Bro. Rice team. L. Janik's TD and R. Wollenberg's 2 point conversion brought the victory.

D. Karnicki averaged 5 yards per carry against Fenwick but fumbles prevented us from scoring in what was the best effort against the Friars in season and post-season play. J. Martin and R. Wollenberg flank Dan.

W. Nowak, G. Steroslawski, R. Wollenberg, L. Buczkowski, G. Poliquin, L. Stoller, R. Pope, D. Karnicki, and G. Szwaya can be seen making things difficult for Trinity. J. Hoffman reeled off 81 yards in 7 carries. R. Pope, W. Nowak, and M. Bryniarski shone among the sophomores.

Len Janik is off and away. He alone gained more yardage on the ground than the entire Loyola team. . . . But they made that extra point. This loss kept us from landing a play-off berth. L. Buczkowski, G. Szwaya, R. Wollenberg, and J. Hoffman can be spotted.

Jim Hoffman had to travel only 31 yds on this TD run. His previous carry was a 65 yard punt return. L. Janik is right behind Jim, but where is R. Wollenberg?

John Martin picked his holes carefully to gain 66 yards in 6 attempts. We surpassed St. Philip in every department but with the rain, and snow, and mud against us we could only eke out a tie.

Dan Karnicki is shown receiving the Coaches Trophy as "the player who has inspired and led the other members of the team." Fullback Dan carried the ball 52 times for 284 yards or a 5.5 average. He is also a star basketball player and an outstanding, slugging first baseman. He has always ranked among the top 5 of his class and his National Merit Scholarship Exam score was 1% shy of being perfect.

CREW WEBER'S WATER WANDERERS

Weberites seldom see their Crew in action. Most of the Regattas are out-of-state events. This year, for instance, the Crew performs only once in Chicago and that at the Central States Regatta on May 11. The other engagements are against the U. of Wisconsin Freshmen on April 27 and St. John's Military Academy on May 4 in Wisconsin and against Culver Military Academy on May 18 and the U. of Purdue on May 25—in Indiana. Since all of these meets are on Saturdays and the distances are not too great, many hardy Weberites and a good number of parents make the trips to cheer our oarsmen on to victory. It is even hoped that a fair representation of fans will journey with the Crew to London, Canada for the National Schoolboy Regatta being held on July 6. Bladesmen have to be tough. Pantywaists don't make the Crew. Crewmen keep in practice and good physical strength all year long by working out in the gym or on the water. And rowing skills are developed by daily ten-mile stints in the Lincoln Park Lagoon.

Middle Group, Sophs: S. Borczyk, J. Kinahan, S. Madura, K. Kaczowski, J. Szafraniec.

Bottom Group, Freshmen: D. Nomellini, V. Graham, R. Rogers, D. Kraft, T. Locascio, D. Lucas, R. Woods, J. Kokias, M. Sokolowski, M. Rice, J. Purta, S. Wysocki, R. Szeluga, J. Wereszczynski, D. Rupright, R. Schultz, C. Kalinowski, R. Podjasek, E. Rudzinski.

Coach Gregory Glab who took over the Weber Crew from September to April, when Coach Bill Ostendorf had to put in a 6 month hitch with the Navy, is all smiles here. He and the Crew had just posed for the colored picture on pp. 128-129. Found there with him are: Chester Weres, James Krajewski, James Flisnik, Charles Krol, Robert Kuczek, Michael Heiberger, Edward Buczynski, Alan Hoppe, and Donald Kraft.

A hundred and five men answered Coach Joseph Sassano's call to the opening sessions of the spring track season. The seventy-five young freshmen and sophomores will provide for the varsity in the coming years . . . and handsomely, if we are to judge by Sophs C. Fergus, K. McHugh, and W. Nowak who have already reached top form in the Mile, Shot Put, and High Jump respectively. Junior Robert Witek took first honors in the 440 against Gordon and then again in the 880 against St. Rita. The latter meet also saw Senior Leonard Janik come in first in the 100. Most of the remaining Juniors and Seniors are sure to be heard from as the season progresses. Coaches Sassano and Righeimer think they have two fine squads.

TENNIS TEAMS LOOK TO SMASHING SEASONS

This year's Senior Varsity team should go places. Last year it had a 3-2 record against tougher competition and its class should come through. Father John Labno, C.R. has molded it into a smooth functioning unit worthy of the Weber tradition.

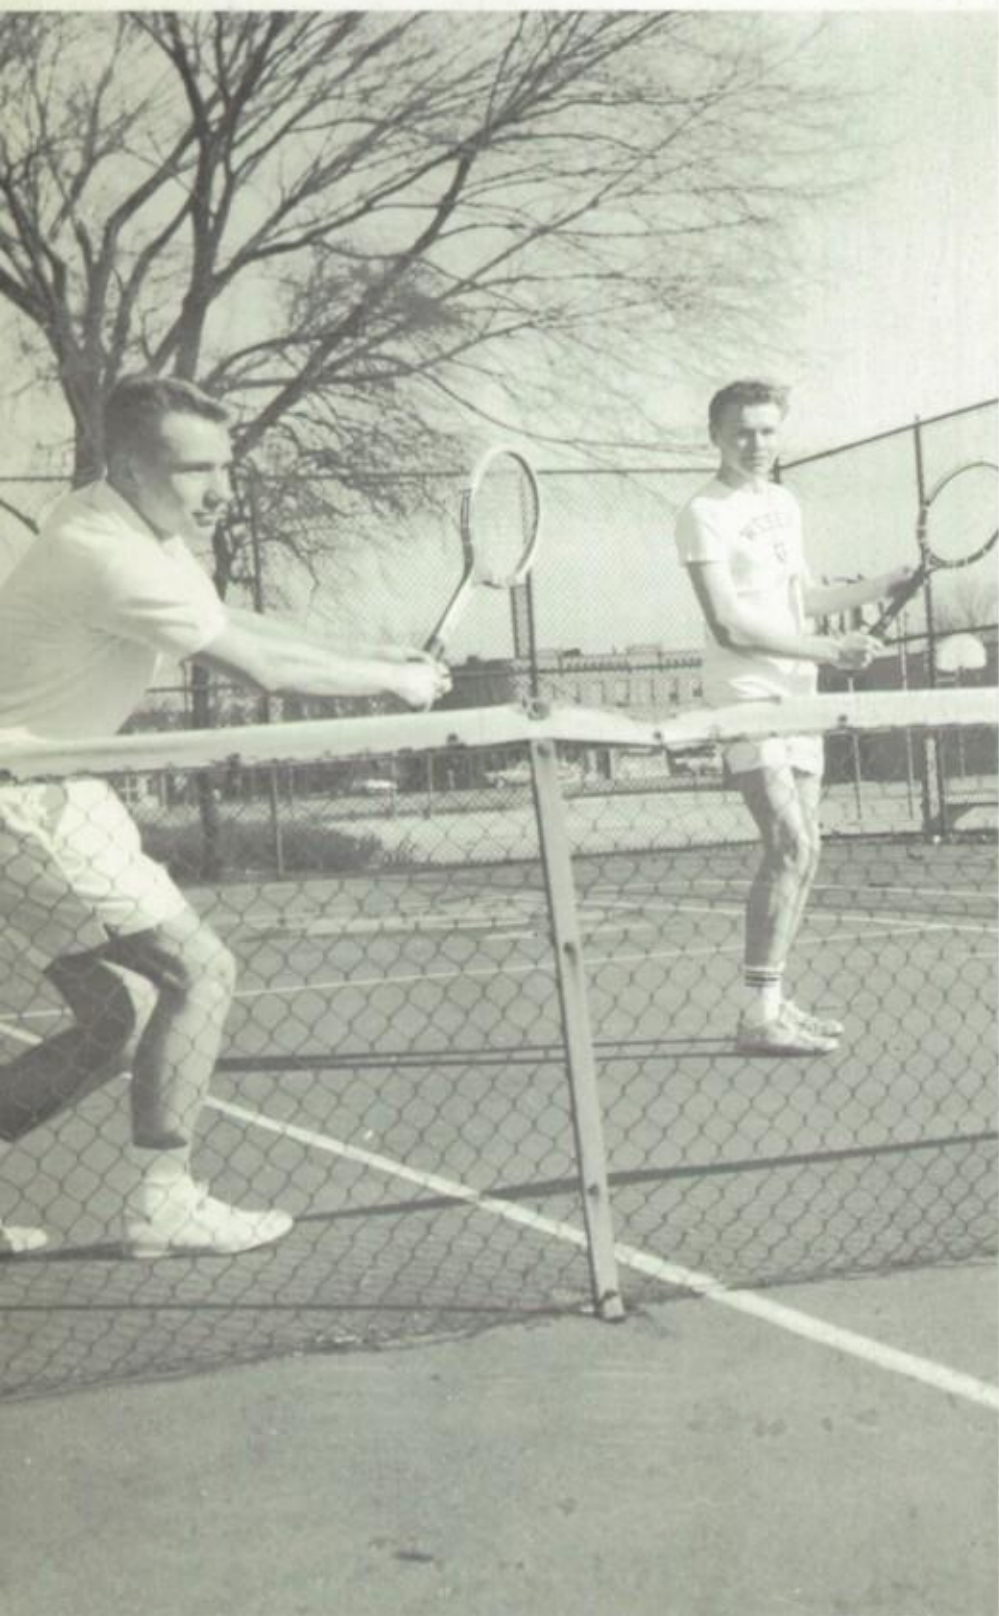

The Junior Varsity is striving valiantly to better last year's record of one win and four losses. No new blood has been infused but the experience gained last year should prove to be efficacious.

SENIOR SWIMMERS

In his first season as senior swimming coach, Mr. Arthur Belmonte inherited a squad which was minus many of its former stars and eked out only a fair showing of 3 wins and 7 losses. However, the Seniors captured the St. Philip Invitational and the Leo Invitational meets and took third place in the Fenwick Senior Relays. In the Senior City meet Ray Zeason broke the Catholic League record in the 200-yd individual medley and Steve Borowski annexed the 100-yd butterfly and the 400-yd freestyle events, both in record times.

JUNIOR SWIMMERS

Mr. Arthur Belmonte's Junior Squad out-swam Morgan Park, St. Philip, Foreman, and St. Ignatius for a 4 wins and 6 losses record. In the Loyola Junior Relays the Weber Junior relay team was the only one to defeat Fenwick. This took place in the 200-yd individual medley relay and in the 400-yd freestyle relay and assured Weber a 3rd place trophy. In the Junior City meet Steve Borowski set Catholic League records in the 50-yd butterfly and 100-yd freestyle events.

AMBASSADOR WEST

Intermissions were pleasant interludes for Gerald Skwier & Karen Tencza, Rod Wilson & Carol Rye, Jim Murphy & Julie Showalter, Hank Lewis & Laurie Michaelson, Randy Siegmund & Susan Pilasievic, and Rich Bolanowski & Kathy Mann.

What would a Prom be without Punch? Vince Battaglia & Linda Harrington, Ray Dobesh & Donna Werderitch, and Bob Evans & Dianne Nawrot get right with it.

Everybody laughed when Jim Eme's date Sheila Smith sat down to play the old piano and Bob Milnichuck & Pat Joyce and Dan Plaza & Paula Saletta couldn't help themselves either.

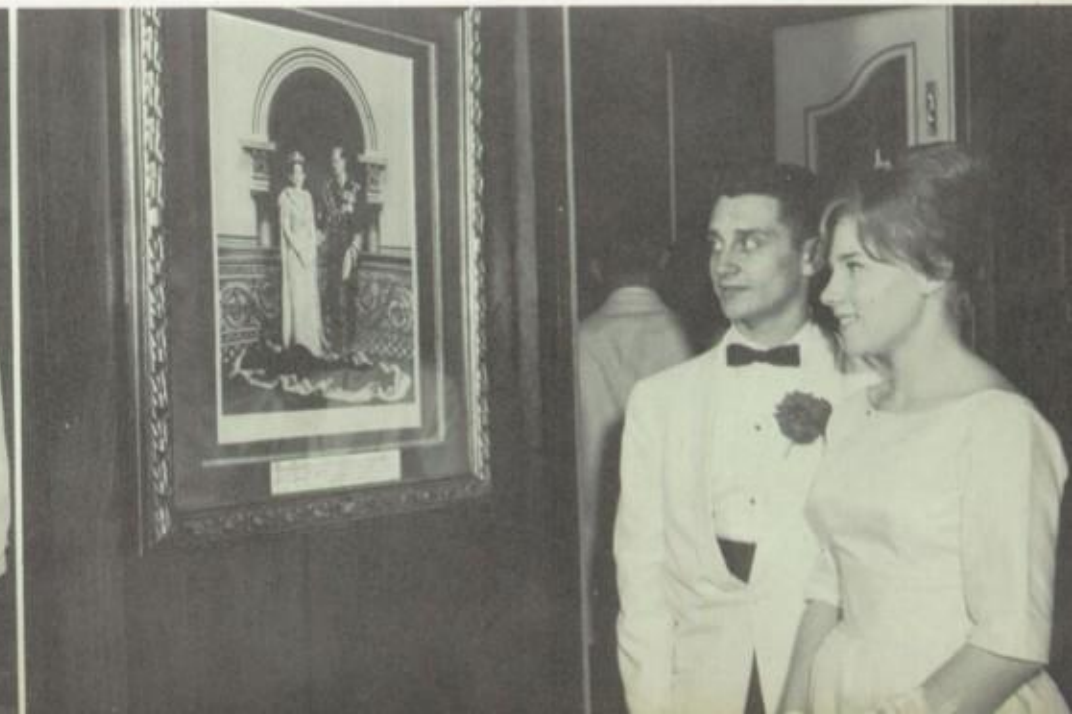

Soft lights...a cozy corner...cool drinks...congenial company---that's living, agreed Tom Brehman & Sue Nieslon, Ted Jablonski & Paulette Mrsh, and Jeff Carlson & Marilyn Janikowski.

Gary Hagele with Marlene Bertulis and Bob Ziaja with Carole Benson make a beautiful Balcony Scene

Tom Manczko & Carolyn Jados and Jim Lehotan & Sophia Stepein just sparkled with joy throughout the evening.

Ernest Kopczynski & Fran Norek were glad to learn that the Ambassador West hosted only the very best.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Rorke chat with son David & Gloria Zajac, shortly before the Grand March.

Rev. Chester Mitoraj is pleased because Bob Munro & Cheryl Aston were pleased with the Prom Bid.

The Grand March is about to begin and Their Majesties, Robert Michalak & Patricia Post, and all the Court are in readiness.

Fred Korba had just presented Geraldine Licht to Rev. George Jendrach who had been chatting with Ed Sullivan & Joanne Willems, and Gerald Kukla & Marge Slonski.

Rev. Edwin Bak seems to be giving Ed Nowak & Jean Burris a hard time, to the delight of Ed's parents and Rev. John Iwicki.

Perhaps this is your vocation. Perhaps God's grace will move your will to join the happy postulants and novices pictured here at St. Joseph's Novitiate, Ridgefield, Illinois.

THINK IT OVER . . . Ask Our Lord to show you His way. He won't let you down. There may be some special task in our Congregation that God is saving just for you.

TALK IT OVER WITH ONE OF THE PRIESTS AT SCHOOL . . . Do you have the talent, health, and virtue necessary for the religious life? He can help you make a decision.

Want to take a quick peek into the Novitiate itself?

This is the Rev. Stanley Gembala, C.R. the Novice Master whose task it is to teach the young postulants and novices to use the tools of sanctity—prayer and the practice of virtue—and to observe their talents, dispositions, and inclinations in order to deal with them according to their particular needs.

Father Henry Ruszel, C.R. is the Assistant to the Novice Master and spells him in many duties.

Father Casimir Guziel, C.R. is the Spiritual Director of the Postulants and Novices.

THE TRAINING OF A RESURRECTIONIST NOVICE

A long face, a gloomy disposition, and a sanctimonious manner have no place in a Novitiate. The Risen Lord is to be served in joy or the sacrifice is unacceptable. The young Novices reach for perfection by doing the ordinary things extraordinarily well out of a dedicated love of God and under the command of their superiors.

In the Classroom the Novices study the Rules and Constitutions of the Congregation of the Resurrections of the Congregation of the Resurrection and the obligations of the vows of Chastity, Poverty, and Obedience. They become acquainted with the masters of spiritual life, Scaramelli, Rodriguez, Tanqueray, as the Rev. Novice Master outlines for them the exercises that are directed to root out faults, subjugate the passions, and acquire the necessary virtues.

In the Chapel the Novices meditate piously, pray zealously, and begin to live the life of intimacy with Christ that slowly makes itself evident in their thoughts and emotions, their words and actions. Here they receive their habit upon completion of their six months of postulancy and here they will pronounce their first temporary vows upon the completion of their one year of Novitiate.

Recreation is the order of the day every day after the noon and evening meals. The facilities are many and rain or shine, hot or cold the Postulants and Novices never lack for diversion.
